Dedication

*To the sponsors of the Senior Class,
R. H. Amerman, Mrs. Sterling
Eaton and Miss Helen Leonardson, who have given to us so generously of their time and who have been so unfailing in their kindness and patience, we dedicate this volume.
In them we have found true friends.*

JUNIOR CLASS

The class of 1932 numbers fifty-five jolly, fun-loving, studious students. Two teachers were needed to advise this group so Mrs. Chapman and Miss Ponsford were chosen.

Our class officers have also proved their ability. Herbert Berendt, president, always succeeded in having "peppy" class meetings; Ward Van Atta, vice president, Helen Fleischman handled the cash and we think we have a start to Washington; Jane Lawrence was secretary.

The first event in which the Juniors participated was the inter-scholastic basketball contest for both boys and girls. Games were played with the seniors, sophomores and freshmen. We also played the Plymouth junior girls.

The J-Hop was held April tenth. The gym was transformed, by the deft fingers of some of the members of the class, into a festival scene. In the center was suspended a large umbrella on which were attached green and orange streamers, connected to the race track. Balloons, umbrellas and awnings were every place, making one think that the fair was being held at the school.

The Grand March was led by the general chairman of committees, Herbert Berendt and his partner, Miss Esther Parmenter.

Hi-Steed and his Commodores furnished tantalizing music, which crowded the floor with dancers. We were well chaperoned which lent dignity to the occasion, and the party was pronounced the prettiest ever held in Northville.

In the latter part of May the class sponsors entertained the class at a picnic held at the Ponsford farm. Golf, and horse-shoes were played and at 6:30 a delicious picnic lunch was held. At about 8:30 o'clock the merry-makers turned toward home, with better thoughts of all teachers.

The plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet were just being made when The Palladium went to press.

SOPHOMORES

Starting our first year of Senior High we elected the following officers and advisors:

President, Charles Dusenbury
Vice-President, Gertrude Deal
Sec. and Treas., Florence Johnson
Advisors, Mrs. Zimmerman and Mr. Jacobson

SOPHOMORE—FRESHMAN PARTY

In spite of the fact that "Fresh Day" was not held this year we had the annual party. An electric phonograph supplied the music (?). Cider and doughnuts were substituted for refreshments.

CLASS ATHLETICS

Besides being well represented in both the boys' and girls' varsity teams the boys' class team did well in the intramural tournament. They placed second, being beaten for the championship by the seniors.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshmen held their class picnic at "Island Lake" Saturday, May 16. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Blake.

---

The Sophomores entertained the Freshmen at a dance given in the high school gymnasium. Plans are being made to return the favor.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Back Row:—Don Earhardt, Howard Beach, Coach Ruggles, Charles Riffenburg, Charles Dusenbury

Bottom Row:—Don Robinson, Ted Cavell, George Greenlee, Capt.; Alex Johnson, Charles Meinzingner

The basketball season of 1930-1931 was also well balanced. The team played 12 games in all and won half of them. The season started well with three victories and then fell into a slump which lasted until the Farmington game.

George Greenlee, stocky senior captain, proved to be a fine guide. Next year's team will be without the services of Cavell, Johnson and Captain Greenlee.

Dusenbury was the high point man of the season. He developed a very pretty corner shot.

The high point of the season was the defeat of Plymouth with a score of thirteen to fourteen.

Howard Beach, center of the team, was elected next year's captain.

FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1930 football season was as well balanced as one might hope for. The Orange and Black eleven under the direction of Coach Ruggles won two games, lost two and tied two.

Ted Cavell, senior captain, played quarterback in all of the games except two, after an injury received in the game with Belleville. He was good on the defense and was responsible for almost two hundred yards in gains. Cavell made famous the No. 3 spinner play which was the most effective plunge of the year.

Alex Johnson was the all-around man of the season. No matter what Alex was asked to do he responded without complaint. His passing and kicking were important factors of the offense.

Frank Hinchman was responsible for over a hundred and fifty yards in line plunges. He played at fullback part of the season for Alex Johnson and tossed the pass to Dusenbury that took the Dearborn game.

Fred Kerr at the end of the season developed into one of our best defense men. He intercepted three passes at Belleville and ran for a touchdown on one of them.

Wayne Preston spent three years on the team as guard. He was a good tackle and represented one of the strongest places on the line.

Ivan Ely developed into a fine center. He broke through the line for many fast tackles.

George Greenlee played on both line and backfield. He was a hard man to stop in an open field.

Howard Christensen was the senior tackle. He had two years of grid experience.

Representatives from the other classes on the team were Biery and Tibble, ends; Beach, Schrader and Robinson, tackles, and Dusenbury, half.

BASEBALL TEAM

With the publishing of the Palladium the 1931 baseball season is just under way. As soon as the ground was firm enough for practice a large squad came out under Coach Ruggles and Captain Berendt. A game with Walled Lake was called off because of rain. Thus the team entered the league season without a practice game.

The games of the season thus far, follow:

April 24, Lincoln Park, there: Northville met a good team and was beaten two to one. Park had batteries of three years experience. Northville played a good game however. Only one hit was made from Johnson, the Northville pitcher, and he brought in the only run.

Dearborn, May 1, here: In the hands of a fast Dearborn pitcher Northville met a second defeat, this time the score being fourteen to two.

SCHEDULE OF THE LEAGUE SEASON

May 8, Belleville, there
 May 15, Plymouth, here
 May 22, Farmington, there
 May 26, Walled Lake, here
 May 29, Wayne, here

In spite of the start of the season Northville has yet a chance for a good place in the league standing. The two hardest games of the season are left behind and thus prospects seem better for the remainder of the season. The line-up in the first game of the season follows:

Johnson, p
 Kohler, c
 Cavell, 1st b
 Westphall, 2nd b
 Dusenbury, ss
 Berendt, Capt., 3rd b
 Dickinson, rf
 Meinzinger, cf
 Lemon, lf

Girls' Athletics

GIRLS' BASEBALL

In the latter part of April girls' baseball practice began. The season looks hopeful because most of last year's players are back and several freshmen.

The following girls are out for baseball:

Peggy Blake	Dorothy Regula
Florence Balko	Mary Jane Junod
Mary Modos	Dorothy Shoebridge

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

When the basketball season started, we were disappointed at finding that most of our players were inexperienced. We felt the loss of our jump center of last year and one of our forwards. However, Peggy Blake, a freshman, filled the former's position admirably, considering it was her first year. Hester Keller succeeded by her good work to fill the other vacancy.

Florence Johnson, Beverly Stamann and Marie Humphries were new first team members and are due plenty of credit. Although Mary Jane Junod was not able to play in all the games, she turned in a good performance when she did play.

Our substitute, Myrtle Lemon, Catherine Duguid, Madeline Haystead and Mary Modos ably assisted the first team. They were always on hand to fill any vacancy.

Much praise and credit should be given to our coach, Mrs. Stalker, for her able coaching.

Lillian Cassie, whom we missed considerably on the team this year, displayed an excellent job as manager.

Our youngest star, Marilyn Cavell, acted as mascot. Her presence was always enthusiastically greeted.

GLEE CLUB DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

Northville's Senior Girls' Glee club entered the state contests for the first time this year and won first place over eleven other clubs in the district meet at Ypsilanti. This is a fine achievement for their first attempt.

BOYS' QUARTET

One of the most popular music organizations in our school this year was the Boys' Quartet. They made about twenty appearances in Northville and sang in Pontiac, Plymouth and West Point. The members are Alex Johnson, Martin Sommer, Ted Cavell, Merle Fraser and Richard Shipley, accompanist.
