Senior Student Council

This year's Student Council was headed by Mayor Bob Orr and consisted of Marilyn Cavell, Secretary; Pat Klein, Treasurer; and Mr. G.V. Harrison, Advisor. The Alderman were: Robert Streng, Junior High; Natalie Brader and Kay Stevens, Freshman Class; Maxine Coe and Harold Schoultz, Sophomore Class; Louis Eaton and Jack Holcomb, Junior Class; Arlene Blake and Charnelle Hardesty, Senior Class.

The council finished the school year with approximately $50.00 in its treasury. This was considered very good, because of the fact that the council financed football, basketball, baseball, track, and golf.

The council used the following ways to make money: gate receipts from the football and basketball games, movies, several informal dances, and the sale of football pins to the students.

Class History

Upon the close of our eighth grade year we called a class meeting and elected the following officers from a class of 53 to help us start our high school career: Rosemary Rennie, President; Mary Potter, Vice-President; Norma Gotro, Secretary; Donald Green, Treasurer; and Roger Miller, Alderman to the student council. Due to lack of time, Rosemary resigned her presidency after about six months and gave over her duties to an able substitute in the person of Robert Orr.

Of course, even though we were only Freshmen, we already began looking forward to that very distant highlight, the annual Senior trip to Washington, D.C. Our first money-making project was in the form of a play day which brought us the huge profit of $5.00. Following this were candy sales, bake sales and the collecting of newspapers.

After spending a pleasant vacation, dear old N.H.S. once again beckoned us back and we began our Sophomore year with Bob Orr as President, Donald Green as Vice-President, Leonard Fritz as Treasurer, Jean Orr, as Secretary and Roger Miller as Alderman to the student council. Again bake sales and candy sales helped our treasury grow and on St. Patricks day we gave our first dance which proved to be a complete success. At the end of our Sophomore year our financial standing amounted to $34.25.

There were two outstanding events in our Junior year. They were, need I mention them (?), the Junior Play and the J-Hop. Mrs. Frank Hawkins did a splendid job of directing the play, "Little Miss Dreamer", and the acting ability of a lot of our classmates was certainly brought to the surface. The Hop was a very gala event, with its colorful spring decorations. The So-Phis-To-Cats were engaged to furnish us with music for the evening. This proved to be our first big money-making project; a profit of $90.00 was added to our savings. President Arlene Blake, Vice-President Ken Wolfe, Secretary Jean Orr, Treasurer James Dixon and Alderman Pat Klein, helped make this year a success with their leadership.

The Senior Booth at the fair did not plan out as well as was expected owing to the fact that our profits only came to $147.00 but we didn't let this discourage us. Everyone worked hard and we appreciate the guidance given us by Mr. William Hensch and Mrs. Ida B. Cooke.

The Senior Prom was a huge success and all of us enjoyed dancing to the music of Jerry Beisel and his Orchestra. Profits on that dance, we are proud to inform you, were $110.

Next in line was our last but not least money-making venture, the Senior play, "Girl Shy", directed by E. C. Mollema and Charles Yahne. Again we proved that some of our class members were dramatically inclined.

Then at long last, on April 29, 38 smiling, excited Seniors were given a hilarious farewell at the Northville Depot and off they went to Washington. Mr. and Mrs. William Hensch and Mrs. Ida B. Cooke chaperoned this group and they say as we all do that they will never quite forget the wonderful time we had.

This June, 53 Seniors will be graduated from Northville High and soon they will be looking back, some perhaps a little wistfully, and realizing that their school days are behind them forever.

Junior Class

The graduating class of "41" started its' career in N.H.S. in 1937 as freshmen. Our officers were: President, Frank Eaton, V. President, Louis Eaton, Secretary, Marilyn Cavell, Treasurer, Helen Dixon, and alderman Ida Walker. Mr. Ellison and Mr. Smith were the class sponsors. Then we became Sophomores in 1938-39, officers being President: Louis Eaton, Vice President, Joe Defino, Secretary, Betty Stilwell, Treasurer, Ruth Parmenter, and Ida Walker was again alderman to the Student Council. This year's sponsors were Mrs. Herrick and Mr. Ellison. Now here we are as the Junior class of 1940. Our class officers are President, Ida Walker, Vice President, Joe Defino, Secretary, Ruth Frank, Treasurer, Ruth Parmenter and the Eminent "man about town" Jack Holcomb is our alderman. Our sponsors are Mr. Mollema and Mr. Ellison.

In the past year the Junior class has had five big events in their striving for money to journey to Washington. At the time of the fair, Junior girls worked for the class by selling ginger-ale, making $99.90 in all. Members of the class sold Crowell Publishers magazines. This helped the cause immensely. Then of course there was the Junior play "Applesauce" which was given in January and directed by Mr. Leslie Lee. Profit on this project came to $81.00. We had two booths in the N-Club carnival. And last but not least, is the J-hop. Eddie Martin's orchestra was decided upon by Louis Eaton, Valora Wheeler, Betty Stilwell, and Bob Boyden. The "committee in charge" of the occasion was made up of Valora Wheeler, Douglas McCluskie, and Jane Ely.

The Choir

The choir gave a choral concert in the N.H.S. gymnasium and also sang at the band concert about the last of February. The girl's glee club sang at the Father and Daughter Banquet at the Methodist Church. The boy's glee club sang for the Women's Club, and March 15 the girls sang again at the Training school. The last appearance of the seniors in this group was in the operetta, "The Count and the Co-ed", which was given May 29 and 31.

The four seniors who graduated in the class of 1940 from this group are: Allan Gotro, Peggy McCollough, Natalie Whipple, and Ernestine Lewis.

The Band

The school band has a membership of approximately fifty members. Their activities have been quite numerous, starting with a short concert for the American Legion on the Fourth of July. Toward the last of August they played for the Northville Wayne County Fair. Then they received an invitation to play for the Michigan State Fair, for which they were given a medal as a token of remembrance. The home football games were always given a hearty send off by the band either at school pep meetings or on the field. The concert in March was the most outstanding one of the year. All events were under the direction of Mr. Leslie G. Lee, head of the Music Department.
