YEARBOOK STAFF

We want to thank all those responsible for making the "Forty-Niner" possible. It has provided a world of fun and experience.

We hope that the features, sketches, articles and photographs will be successful in arousing pleasant memories for both the present Seniors and the under-classmen. There were so many involved that a list of all committees and their members would crowd two pages (of mighty dull reading).

Special thanks should be given to Craines, several members of the Photo Club; all those on the staff who gathered, wrote, typed, identified photos, drew pictures and took care of all the detailed jobs necessary in getting our book together.

On behalf of the class of 1949, I would like to thank Mr. McIlema and the Teachers who have helped to guide us during our school years.

Through this help we have gained poise and confidence which will help us meet the challenge of tomorrow. In unison we express gratitude to those who have enabled us to look back upon our school days with pleasant memories.

SENIOR PROM

CLASS HISTORY

In 1945, the Forty-niners' wagontrain began its long journey, led by Jack Stovall, Joanne Bidwell, Jean Gray, and Clifford Schroder. We gained early friendships by being initiated by the Forty-eighters. The money earned at our hoedown was donated to the Public Address System.

We reached our Sophomore Station with Jack Stovall, Jeanne Freydl, Barbara Simpson, and Clifford Schroder taking the lead. We initiated the tenderfeet of our wagontrain with a treasure hunt. While in camp we participated in the annual carnival. Our contribution was a fortune telling booth. These profits also went towards the Public Address System.

Dick Kremkow, Lester Tomaszewski, Elizabeth Defina, and Hugh Niven took the lead after arriving at our Junior Station. Three months after our arrival we dug down deep and finally received our gold class rings. Along the way, we needed to add to the treasury a few more nuggets, so we started the project of selling magazines. In November we presented the play "We Shook the Family Tree", gaining more gold pieces to stage our J-Hop. We chose "Deep Purple" as our theme, with Jimmy Heffner's Orchestra furnishing the music.

The final miles of our journey were full of exciting events. We were led by Jack Heslip, Dick Kremkow, Barbara Simpson, and Yvonne North. Our sponsors were Miss Seeger and Mr. Yahne. In October we had our pictures taken and while waiting for them we presented our last formal dance, The Prom. We chose Eddie Casper's Orchestra to furnish the music and "Moonlight Serenade" for the theme. Arrangements for the Senior play began. We presented "Three To Get Married". We eagerly anticipated our long awaited journey's end. In May we took an interesting cruise to Niagara Falls. Other students hailed from towns all over the State of Michigan. We chose caps and gowns of gray with tassels of orange and black. Continuing on our way we received our diplomas after completing our long but joyous journey.

On the frosty evening of November 26 the gym of old N.H.S. echoed to the strains of "Moonlight Serenade", being played by Eddie Casper's orchestra.

The basic color scheme was soft blue silver and white. The moon silouetted music notes shone above the blue canopy extending over the orchestra. At the opposite end directly under the star studded invitation was the spotlighted life-size dancing couple, under a white arch. Trellises along the side representing music staffs held silver stars, black music notes and treble clefs.

The most successful highlighting event of this year's prom was the traditional grand march led by President Jack Heslip and Gail Matzen, Vice President Dick Kremkow and Joanne Bidwell, Secretary Barbara Simpson and Cliff Schroder and Treasurer Yvonne North and Bruce Butler.

ACTIVITIES

Most of us have noticed how clean our halls and class rooms have always been when we come to school each morning. And on those days in January and February when the thermometer dropped towards zero, didn't you appreciate the warmth of the school? Of course by now you know we're referring to those hard working maintenance men.

The students want to take this opportunity to thank the Janitorial Staff for keeping the building and grounds attractive all through the year.

The present Library Club originated six years ago. For the first five years it was composed of Senior High students only, but this year we welcomed fourteen Junior High students.

Our outstanding activity was Book Week during which we exhibited nearly one hundred new books. Now we have four entirely new sets of encyclopedias and a new set of biographies, bringing the total to nearly five thousand books.

Our club is sponsored by Miss Palmer with the following students holding offices.

The Student Council is comprised of the three officers, elected each spring, and the aldermen or representatives from each homeroom, who are chosen in their respective homerooms at the beginning of each school year. The council serves to provide the students with a knowledge of government procedure and also induces more interest in their own school.

This year the council, acting through its several committees, offered the student body a Thanksgiving chapel service and pep meetings. It also issued concessions at the football and basketball games and sponsored several dances. The money earned by the council at the dances and concessions was used to help pay for the pert new cheerleader's uniforms, movie projector and other useful articles to be used by the school. A box was placed in the office for student suggestions. The Student Council is a member of the National Association of Student Councils.

BAND

This school year has found the band appearing in two indoor concerts, in half time shows at home football games, several concerts in the village park, and two at the State Fair. Aside from participating in parades at the State Fair, the American Legion Convention in Grand Rapids and on holidays in Northville, we attended the State district contest and took part in a Northville-Plymouth Band Clinic.

The members feel that the band has a part in developing each player's ability, poise, and self-confidence. We wish to thank the interested townspeople who have donated money to our band fund and above all Mr. Lee, who has guided us through another successful, pleasant and enjoyable year.

The Photo Club, established in the fall of 1946, aims to produce better Photography. There are weekly meetings at the town hall where the students develop and print pictures with the help of Mr. & Mrs. Clyde Hinman.

This year, the 13th of January the Northville Driving Club very generously presented the club with a check for $105 so that the group could buy an enlarger. Some of the members have been tinting their enlargements with Photo Oils, and in time they hope to become skilled in the art.

On January 8, 1949 members of the Photo Club visited the Photographic salon at the Detroit Institute of Art, where there were pictures from all parts of the world, South America, South Africa, Australia, Germany, England, Canada, and the United States.

The Spanish Club, otherwise known as "Padre Kazarian and his Senoritas", is now in its sixth year of existence, has as its purpose the providing of worthwhile past-times for students of Spanish.

This year the initiation was altered. In previous years, it was combined with a picnic, but this year it was performed during a school day. The new members were required to wear a Spanish garment painted mustache, and side burns, and were ordered to bow to old members.

A dance sponsored following the Holly Basketball game added to our treasury.

The year's activities were rounded out with a spring picnic.

The three act comedy "Three to Get Married" was directed by Miss Panattoni and given April 21 and 22.

The scene is a small town in early spring. Wedding plans were made and continuously being delayed by Sharlie's kid sister, Kicky and her friend Agnes. Kicky's schemes fail until the day of the wedding. As the minister was saying "Speak now or else forever hold his peace" Kicky spoke up, thus preventing her sister from marrying a "conceited liar". Sharlie then realizes that Marvin, her old beloved friend, was the real man for her.

The Junior Class play "June Mad", was presented December 8th and 9th. Written by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements, the production was under the direction of Miss Panattoni.

Committee Chairman were: Assistant Directors, Tulane German and Sally Merriam; Scenery, Clair Brown; Lighting, Leonard Howard; Properties, Ann Beckel; Costumes, Iris Sarnes; Tickets and Programs, Joyce Wick; Advertising, Dick Lake; Make-up, Dolly Clark.

"June Mad" is a delightful comedy about Penny Wood, a fifteen year old girl who suddenly grows up and doesn't quite know how to cope with this change. She is impressed by Mr. Roger Van Vleck, a man of the world, but Chuck, the boy next door, finally wins out. Effie, the maid, Elmer, the handyman, and Millie Lou help to make this play a swift moving comedy.

The Recreation Orchestra is sponsored by the Recreation Committee of Northville which furnishes our musical needs. We are taught one night a week by Mr. Strasen, who is a semiprofessional orchestra man. The Orchestra plays for all the regular Friday night dances and some outside engagements. Starting as freshmen, Lee, Connors, Doren, Niven and Kremkow have enjoyed this musical experience through their high school years.

We sincerely hope that Cansfield, Poulos, Atwood and Coolman will carry on and continue their good work.

PROGRAMS

HEALTH PROGRAM

This year's health program, under Miss Knapp's direction included the following activities:

Nursing Program

A talk by Mrs. Campbell of the Council of Community Nursing, a movie and a skit. Fifteen Northville girls are interested in nursing.

T.B. Program

An assembly, with two movies and talk by Dr. Howard, Director of Maybury Sanatorium. Four hundred and five students and school employees were x-rayed in the mobile x-ray unit.

Student composed letters were sent to parents, urging them to be x-rayed.

T.B. seals were sold at Christmas.

The faculty, future nurses and Student Council Health Officer, Stanley Dahlager, helped in the program.

Immunization

Voluntary immunization was given at a small cost against diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus.

March of Dimes

Contributions for the fight against infantile paralysis.

Hearing Test

All students in grades 7 through 12 were given hearing test with audiometers.

Care of Teeth

Ruth Rogers of State Health Department, spoke to classes on care of teeth, mentioning effects of sweets and matters of proper cleaning and the new Fluorine Treatment.

March Red Cross Month

Two weeks were set aside for contributions.

Easter Sale

Stamps were sold during April. The money will be used to benefit crippled children.

ASSEMBLIES

OCTOBER 6, Mr. John D. Sheraef talked to the High School of his native Russian Iron Curtain Communism, and Russian customs. All agreed it was interesting.

OCTOBER 14, Jesse Stuart, well known author of "Taps for Private Tussy", spoke to us on schooling he had and schools he taught. It was amusing and enjoyable to us all.

NOVEMBER 22, The Thanksgiving Assembly, was addressed by Mr. Paul Schulz. His subjects were early schooling and the Plymouth Rock.

DECEMBER 1, Joanne and Janet Williams, Cowgirl twins, favored us with some songs of the west, among which were "My Adobe Hacienda", "Sioux City Sue", and "I Want to be a Cowboy".

DECEMBER 22, Miss Peeke and the grade school choir delighted us with a Christmas concert. Their selections were followed by group singing.

JANUARY 14, Shakuntala Devenesen, a girl from Madras, India came dressed in her native costume and spoke of the customs of her country. She has an English education and is taking her Master's Degree at University of Michigan.

FEBRUARY 10, Mr. Piero Pierotic, of Vienna State Opera, delighted us with well known songs including some from Dalmatie and sketches from the opera Barber of Seville. Mr. Pierotic was accompanied by Mr. Wm. Carroll. During intermission, Mr. Carroll entertained us with a few selections.

FEBRUARY 16, Dizzy Trout, widely known baseball player, honored us with an assembly. He told various incidents concerning his own boyhood and baseball years.

FEBRUARY 18, Miss Pollick introduced Mr. Wheelock, Wayne County visiting teacher, as speaker and Joyce Howarth and Norma Lemmon read the oath, for Future Teacher's of America.

FEBRUARY 28, Richard Carradine presented, in costume, scenes from best known Shakespearian Plays. He has acted on the stage but at present is touring the country popularizing Shakespeare with High School and general audiences.

The Athletic Board, which is made up of coaches, the Athletic Director and the Principal, was organized in order to take the vast athletic program out of the hands of one person.

The purpose of this board is to promote better sportsmanship and arrange the athletic policies of the school. Some of the main duties of the board are to arrange athletic schedules, finance sports, and set up eligibility requirements for earning major letters in sports.

FOOTBALL

After three weeks of practice with our coaches Jones and Ketterer, we tackled the following opponents:

- |  |                 |
|--|-----------------|
| Northville 6   | Brighton 13     |
| Having something of a defeatist complex, we went into this game with a handicap; in a bang up game, Gray scored our only T.D.  |                 |
| Northville 6   | Inkster 0       |
| It was the first time since the game with Holly in "46" the team came out on top. Winning T.D. by Gray again. Started us out on our best season in many years.   |                 |
| Northville 33  | Bentley 14      |
| For "Dad's Night", the team piled up its highest score adding confidence for games to come. T.D.'s by Stalker, Stovall and Gray.   |                 |
| Northville 24  | Holly 7         |
| Getting number three under our belts was a muddy job. On long marches Gray and Stovall scored. Heslip made many outstanding plays on defense.  |                 |
| Northville 19  | Centerline 13   |
| Our best played game. Fine catches of passes by Stalker and Kazarian with Tiffin doing some fancy running. T.D.'s by Gray, Stalker and Stovall.  |                 |
| Northville 0   | Keego 52        |
| A physical and mental relapse. No Comment!   |                 |
| Northville 29  | Clarenceville 7 |
| For "Homecoming", the team showed superior playing ability. The T.D.'s by Gray, Niven and Stovall. Stalker and Bryant each accounted for a safety.   |                 |
| Northville 20  | Plymouth 7      |
| It took thirteen years to do it! With much poise, the team dampened Plymouth's morale. Stovall made the first score, and Tiffin, on a 52 yard run, added another. Good defensive play by the whole team. Rodamsky gave a commendable showing at quarterback. Mustangs playing their last game were: Stovall and Tiffin, Co-captains; Heslip, most valuable player; Branch, Bryant, Doren, Frid, Kazarian, Kremkow, Larson, Niven, Sechlin, Stalker and Walker. |                 |
