Administrators Find Much To Do

Plans for a possible "full scale year-round school system" is one of the many problems facing Northville's School Board this year. Together with balancing the budget and a myriad of other jobs, administrators always find an outlet for their surplus energy.

Within the High School office, the new assistant principal Ms. Barbara Campbell takes part of the load off Messrs. Holdsworth and Longridge's shoulders. Whether patrolling the halls, talking with irate parents, or the newest job of sponsoring school clubs, the principals can always find time for a friendly "chat" in their office.

Secretaries, Counselors Work Dramatically

Ms. Barbara Campbell checks out another tardy.

*Office Secretaries
Ms. Hay and Ms. Rollings*

Three phones ring, running feet scuffle, shrill voices yell "Me first" as hands extend an equally grubby incoherent note. Sounds like a macabre movie, right? Wrong! It pictures the school's office on a good day. Secretaries Hay, Juday, and Rollings are faced with these common situations every day. No wonder coffee breaks seem like Nirvana!

Counselors are hired to help students choose the right college, occupation, or beneficial courses, or just to lend a sympathetic ear. But something gets lost in the translation; counselors introvert themselves during class mix-ups in September, and re-enter the living world in November when things again are organized. So visit your counselor. They'd get the company, you'd get the help.

To most, English is a mishmash of nouns, participles, and "Run, Spot, run!" revisited. But to liberal arts students at Northville High, English is the gateway to speaking, writing, and the humanities. Included in these college-prep courses are Creative Writing, Speech, Drama, and Composition.

For non-college bound girls, there is a "Women in Society" class, presenting the views on femininity from Adam and Eve to the current "Ms." stage.

Creative Writing seminars, in conjunction with art students, put out their literary magazine "Centaur". Drama and journalism classes present their traditional productions — plays and the "Mustanger".

Mr. Donahue and Mike Hutcherson listen to "Now Poetry".

Sprechen Sie Deutsch? Or is it French or Spanish? Whichever you prefer, the Northville High School foreign language department has a course for you. This year, the department is bigger and better than ever. We welcome Ms. Elaine Prestel, who teaches French and German, and Ms. Emily Serafa, the new Spanish teacher. They join Ms. Helga Guequierre, Ms. Susan Costello, and Ms. Roberta Pinsky, in their efforts to add a foreign flavor to the school. This year's activities include Christmas parties, the breaking of "pinatas" in the beginning Spanish classes, songs and games in the French classes, and field trips to French, German, and Mexican restaurants.

Logically, a two-year-old should come up with the answer at the same time you do . . . never! Actually, you don't have to love math to do well; it starts with good teachers, of which Northville High has an abundance. Whether you're in Algebra or Calculus, they'll help you enjoy it.

'When You Wish Upon a Star'

Childhood dreams came to life during this year's Homecoming Week. Over the years, Homecoming has seen a great deal of changes. This year marked the second anniversary of Homecoming Week, including such exciting events as the tug-of-war, stroller races, bubble gum blowing contests, and hippity-hop races. To top it off, the traditional dance, this year entitled "When You Wish Upon A Star", was sponsored by the Pep Club and enhanced by the music of the Jazz Band.

This year's Pom Pon squad was sponsored by Ms. Cindy Haynes. Working continuously on money-making projects, they raised enough money to buy new uniforms, which will be handed down to next year's squad.

The Pom Pon Girls brought spirit to every home basketball game during half-time through their dance routines. The team worked hard to put together their routines, and Northville High School is very proud of them.

"Come on and take a free ride..."

David and Lisa Debuts at NHS

David (Eric Egeland) and Lisa (Diana Dye) stop to chat.

"...it's Lisa I see...looking at me..."

Dr. Alan Swinford (Jim Porterfield) advises Mrs. Clemens (Patty Aenchbacher).

David and Lisa, a two-act play by James Reach, was the Drama Department's Fall Play presentation. It concerns two emotionally disturbed teenagers who discover each other's friendship as the result of the events during the play. Directed by Mr. Kurt Kinde, who was assisted by Kris Kofler and Brian Steimel, the play ran from November 28 to December 1, 1973.

The role of David was played by Eric Egeland, a sophomore. The part of Lisa was double-cast, giving two people an opportunity to perform, and at the same time presenting a challenge to the rest of the cast. Diana Dye, a senior, and Devon Glenn, a junior, portrayed Lisa on alternating nights.

The George award, for outstanding work behind the scenes, was awarded to Reid Riddell and Sally Johnson. For their outstanding portrayals of Lisa, both Diana Dye and Devon Glenn won the Oliver award, presented for professionalism on stage. Though only a few cast and crew members received awards, they are all to be commended for a job well done.

Student Congress' main goal for this year was to install a Student Smoking Lounge. Due to red tape and various other obstacles, they were unable to succeed. Other projects were the planning of Homecoming Week and its many activities, including the crowning of the homecoming queen.

The purpose of Student Congress is to promote school spirit, along with student participation and organization.

To help students have a better understanding of the true meaning of debate, this year a debate class was established, with Ms. Rosenberg instructing it. The team, which is part of the Michigan Debate Association, had a fairly good year. Barb Eltinge did very well, winning a speaker trophy in the Washtenaw County League. This year's debate topic was — Resolved: The Federal Government should provide employment for all citizens living in poverty.

The chosen topic was a difficult one, and the debaters should be congratulated.

Being part of a newspaper staff is something one will never forget. The tension of meeting deadlines, writing articles, and interviewing gives the students involved a real taste of what it's all about. The Mustanger is a non-biased paper produced by and for the students of Northville High School. This year students were able to buy subscriptions to the Mustanger. Publications such as this one help prepare many students for careers in news reporting and journalism.

The cheerleaders also caught spectators' eyes as they boosted spirit at every football and basketball game of the season.

Pep Club Dances Highlight Year

This year history was made in Pep Club, a boy joined what had been an all girl club. Sponsored by Ms. Pinsky, Pep Club has approximately 50 members, who help support the boys' athletics by making signs. Among activities this year were the traditional Homecoming Dance, a 50's Soc Hop featuring the "Woolies", which according to Associate Principal Dave Longridge was the "Best dance that NHS has had in 5 years . . .", and activities planned with N-Club.

NHS Skiers Discover Snow at Alpine

Think of wind hitting your face, the sun in your eyes and snow under your feet. Then put yourself on the top of a fairly slanted hill and wisk off. After your first wipe-out it's easier to face another defeat from the frozen flakes. And after warming up by an inviting fireplace with a hot chocolate in hand, one can only think of returning to an even more challenging slope to try out their style once more. Yes, this is the way one feels when skiing.

Frolicking in the snow is one of the things ski-clubbers do best.

You run into some of the nicest people when you ski.

Juniors Climb 'Stairway to Heaven'

Couples attending this year's Junior Prom danced to the theme of "Stairway to Heaven" at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth, February 23, 1974, from 9:00 P.M. to 1:00 A.M.

Sky blue and royal blue decorations were amid colored stars sprinkled along the balcony, giving a heavenly impression, which helped it to be an evening thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Clubs Contribute to Student Creativity

Interested in Art? Art Club can fill all your needs and curiosities from lettering to stone-cutting. Mr. Parko, the sponsor, claims that anyone having any interest at all in any aspect of art has the opportunity to explore their ideas through the Art Club. Along with their individual projects, the members took field trips to Eastern Michigan University and to Plymouth State Home.

Interested in Dramatics? Drama Club is designed to develop the dramatic talents of the students who participate. One interesting activity that the club performs is the "Street Theatre," where the students conduct drama on the streets. The Drama Club also raises money to help better the equipment in the auditorium and the shows that are dramatized on the stage at NHS.

Under the direction of Ms. Anita Kalousdian, the Choir and Girls Glee also presented a Sacred Music Concert at The First Presbyterian Church during the Christmas Holidays. A Spring Concert was given, under the new direction of Mr. Donald Renz.

Music - It's the Main Idea

You ask for music and NHS has the cream of the crop! Some bands include Marching Band, Pep Band, Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Jazz Band, and Pit Orchestra for the spring musical "Hello Dolly!". This year the Marching Band added colorful flags to top off their exquisite performances. Although music is the main ingredient in all of the bands, excitement, enthusiasm, and fun also go along with the contributions of those who participated.

MAJORETTES: Stacey Balko, Judy Bell, Kim Davies, Kelli Georgeson, and Brenda Burnstrum.

'74 Palladium Is Better Than Ever

Working with a staff of eight people, and a new advisor, you might expect a yearbook of inferior quality. The 1974 Palladium, however, proves that this point of view is definitely mistaken. This year, the Palladium has 184 pages, a 32 page jump from the previous year. The introduction is, for the first time, very artistic and done in three colors. The theme "We May Never Pass This Way Again," is appropriate for both graduating Seniors and aspiring Underclassmen.

The yearbook staff would like to express our deepest thanks to Powell Studios for their help in photography and to our two student photographers; Dave Matthews and Mark Haynie. Also we appreciate the kindness and patience of the people at Modern Yearbook Company.

But what does the future hold for the Palladium? Will the standards be kept high? Will students at Northville High School care enough to keep their yearbook activities running smoothly? Only time and the Northville community will tell.

The fall of 1973 dawned bright for the Mustangs as they ended the season with a 5-4 win-loss record. It was a hard road back from winless 1971, but Northville has arrived. Highlights of the season were two impressive victories: 27-0 against Clarenceville and 47-6 against South Lyon. Leading the Mustangs to success was senior Jim Porterfield, selected by the Detroit News to the "Metro North" team and Western Six All-Leaguer. He was joined on the All-League team by junior Doug Crisan and Senior John Sherman. With the help of head coach Chuck Shonta and assistant coaches Ed McLoud and Chuck Apap the Mustangs finished the year charging ahead with full power.

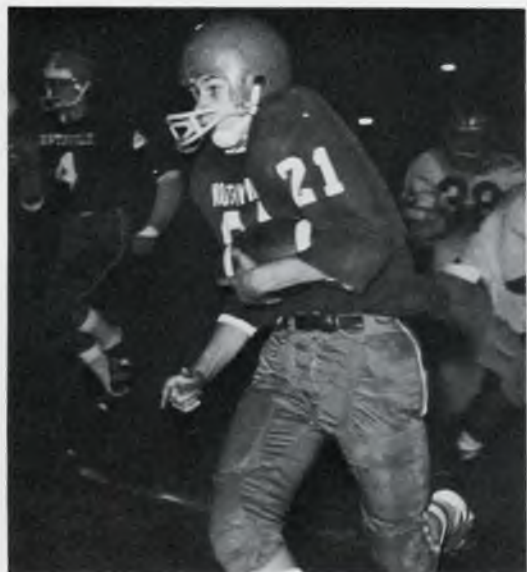

JV's Talent Rich Last Fall

Junior Varsity scored a great season again this year. The J. V. Gridders, under the coaching of Tom Johnson, ended up the season with a 6-2 win-loss record. The J. V., like the varsity, had a large team this year, as a total of 70 men went out for the teams. The success of the J. V. this year can be partly attributed to the wide variety of talent that existed.

The 1973 Girls Tennis Team, under the coaching of Mrs. Ute Filkin, were really on the ball this season despite a late start. After winning three out of their four league meets, they went on to take the Western Six League title. With the return of many freshmen the team should do even better next year.

Coach Ralph Redmond led the 1973-74 cross country team to an amazing 11-1 win-loss record. The Harriers trampled such teams as Farmington Harrison, Waterford Mott, and Dearborn Riverside. Northville streaked past everyone; everyone, that is, but Churchill. The powerful Chargers handed Northville its only defeat. Northville placed second in the Western Six League meet; again Churchill was a tough competitor and won the league title.

Among this season's top performers was Tom Coram, a graduating senior, who has many first places to his credit. Other top runners for the team included Kevin Kofler, Guy Cole, David Beers, and Mike Anusbigian. Many miles of jogging through Cass Benton Park truly paid off for our Mustangs!

Something historic happened this year to the 1973 Golf team. It is peculiar in the fact that it doesn't happen to the Golfers much. In fact it happens to all other athletic teams, girls and boys, in this school without much furor caused by it. What is this relatively rare circumstance?

They lost. Yes, for the first time since the spring of 1971, the Golfers lost a dual match. Plymouth Salem ended the long Mustang winning streak at 52.

But why play up a loss? The Mustangs clubbed everyone else during the year, ending with a 16-1 record. Coach Al Jones' boys took the Western Six title for the third year in a row. Seniors Brian Mills and Bob Simmons, along with sophomore Jim Dales were appointed to the Western Six all-league team.

What other accomplishments did the team have? Out of 35 schools represented at the Plymouth Brayburn tournament, Northville came up on top. Out of 23 of the state's top teams at the Pontiac Press Tourney, Northville came up on top. The only unexpected finish was at the rain-soaked Regionals match. Due to "awful weather," as Coach Jones emphasizes, the Mustangs came in 4th.

Girls' Relays Place in State

With an overall record of 5 wins and 2 losses, the 1973 Girls Swim Team had another stupendous year. The girls were runner-up at the Western Six League meet. Under the coaching of Ms. Karen Turner, the team was able to put together two fine state qualifying relays. The medley and the freestyle relays placed 10th and 11th respectively. The medley relay consisted of Donna Guard, Sandy Bacsanyi and Tracey Piscopink. The free relay performers were Lisa Van Ingen, Kathy Biery, Lori Holland and Tracey Piscopink. If these performances don't seem to be enough, coach Turner predicts an even better season next year.

Well, what can one say? The freshmen have done it again! For the third year out of four the freshman swim team have brought home a league trophy. Even though the team has a 100% turnover each season, coach John Edwards has been able to coordinate the talent into record breaking teams. The 1973-74 frosh tankers won 5 of 7 dual meets during their season; and in the process broke records in 6 of the 11 events. Northville's freshman team also have the best medley relay in the state. Members of that relay are Mark Morland, Jim Wright, Randy Roggenbuck and Ed Donnan.

The year following a state championship is reputed by coaches to be the hardest to make a winning season. Not for the Northville Varsity Swim Team! The 1973-74 tankers, under the coaching of Ben Lauber, were able to win 14 dual meets during the year, while dropping only two. This adds on to their previous wins to give a five year total of 64 and 5. Three of those five losses (including the two this year) were handed to Northville by arch-rival Farmington Harrison. The Mustangs were runners-up in the Western Six League meet, while the powerful Harrison squad took the title. In that meet, Tom Cook took first in the diving competition with a record breaking 447 points. Tom now has all three requirements to become Northville's only All-American swimmer to date. Cook and breaststroker Art Greenlee also qualified for the Class A State meet and captured 10th and 5th places, respectively.

Another year, another winning season. Ho-hum. It seems that after a few years of building under Coach Walt Koepke, the Northville Varsity Basketball team can have this attitude! The Mustangs won 14 of 22 encounters, including victories against Western Six teams such as Farmington Harrison, Walled Lake Western, and Plymouth Canton. The cagers also came within 4 points of the big guns, Mott and Churchill. All-conference honors went to senior forward Todd Eis (first team) and to senior guard Ed Kritch (second team).

With the performance of this year's Junior Varsity Basketball Team, it looks like Northville's varsity cage team is bound to improve over the next few years. Led by the Armada brothers, Mark Lisowski, Jay Slagle and many others, the team recorded an amazing 14 and 6 won-loss season. Coach Omar Harrison states that with as fine a performance this year, the varsity team will be receiving some fine men next winter.

Northville's Junior Varsity Wrestling team had a predominantly winning season this year. The JV grapplers ended up with a 7-3 won-loss record. Part of the credit of the successful year is attributed to Dennis Singleton and Ed Talbot. Both of these JV matmen turned in second place finishes in the League meet. Coach Gary Emerson chose them as being outstanding throughout the year; as well as in the conference meet. The Mustangs finished with a 5th place in the League, just seven points out of 2nd place.

Northville grapplers complete their season this year with ups and downs. The matmen ended up with a won-loss record of only 3 and 7 (downs), but had two fine performances in the end of the year Western league meet: Dave Bentley, only a freshman, was able to cop a second place in the 101 weight class; a senior Jim Porterfield wrestled to second place in a tough heavyweight division; the ups. These second place coupled with many thirds turned by transfer student Dan Platte, senior Dan Fialon, Jack Berger and Tim Johnson gave the Mustangs a fourth place finish in the conference, 1/2 point out of fourth; 8 small points out of third. Coach Ed McLoud quickly pointed out that because of lots of young talent, the 1974 wrestlers just might give four conference champions, Walled Lake Western, a scare.

Cagers Tie League

Seniors Barb Wilson, Muriel Bedford, Stacey Balko, Rene Wheaton and Carol Weber led this year's Girls Basketball Team to a league title. Actually, the girls had to share the conference title with Walled Lake Western and Churchill, but there's more to this year's story. The cagers won 10 out of 12 games this year, improving on last year's record. The girls made it through the semi-finals in the district play-offs by beating Belleville, but were defeated in the finals by Ypsilanti.

A tie for the Western Six championship highlighted the 1973-74 Girl's Volleyball team. Farmington Harrison was the team's main foe during the year, as Northville's only loss resulted from their encounter. The girls' won-loss record for the season was 9-1. Northville defeated Harrison, but wound up second, in the first annual Northville Volleyball Invitational.

This was the second year that the Girls Gymnastics Team was in competition against other schools. They had a good turn out for the team, a total of eighteen girls received the honor of representing Northville High for gymnastics competition. The girls had a good season this year with a record of three wins and three losses. They conquered Ann Arbor Huron, Ann Arbor Pioneer, and Walled Lake Western. Six girls qualified for state competition.

“This year’s Girl Track Team looks better than ever.” This statement could have been used in the past five yearbooks. But that’s because it’s always been true, the girls track team has progressively been getting better and this year looks unbelievable with all the regulars back; Muriel Bedford, Sheree Scott, and many more. Coach Karen Turner is sure the team will improve on last year’s record.

1973 record setters Guy Cole and Jim Porterfield have returned to lead the 1974 Varsity Track team. These two men along with more than 50 others make up the Harrier team that has been doing quite well so far and promises to do a real job at the league meet. Coach Ralph Redmond emphasizes that being strong in 10 of 15 events might carry them to that league crown. And according to coach Al Klukach, the team is certain to improve on last year's 7-4 won-loss record.

On to the top? Yes, if Coach Robert Simpson and the rest of the Varsity Tennis team have their way. Like the other spring sports, the victory road looks good for the remaining season. With such elite netters as Frank Knoth, Greg Boll, and Jami Boshoven, the Mustangs are eyeing that league crown. Cary Eaker and Rick Norton started out with many wins, and these two hope to be the league "doubles" champions.

It's baseball season once again! The Tigers, the Orioles, the Yankees, and, oh yes, the Mustangs. The way the Northville batters have been doing, they might as well be up in the big leagues. Back again this season is ace catcher Steve Serkaian, ace pitcher Joe Bishop, ace hitter John Sherman — the list goes on. After coming so close to the top spot in the regionals during the past couple of years, Coach Chuck Shonta is determined to capture a first this season.

'77 Steps In

Getting used to being in high school isn't the easiest thing to do. The ninth graders had to quickly find out how to adjust to a more hectic, but promising school life. Aside from new and different classes, Freshmen learned about the many clubs, organizations, and athletic activities they could join. The class of '77 seemed to enjoy partaking in high school events and are looking forward to being sophomores.

Spirit of '76 Marches On

Being a Sophomore is quite different than anything else. Unlike the Freshmen, one is already adjusted to high school life; and unlike Juniors, a Sophomore isn't quite that close to graduating; and, of course, unlike Seniors, you don't get Senioritis. But what a Sophomore does, basically, is help in cheering the school on at various sport games, taking enriching classes like biology and civil war, and looking forward to getting older and being a Junior.

The sophomore class officers are: Jay Slagle, president; Pete Talbot, vice president; Denise McDermaid, secretary; and Kim Goldi, treasurer.

Classes of '75, '76, and '77

Make It Happen at NHS

Jubilant Juniors Jive

The Junior class, as always, seems to be a group of enthusiastic, energetic students who are excited about being in eleventh grade, but can't wait until that magical year to follow. The class of '75 partook in many of the Homecoming events and in February of 1974, had their Junior Prom at the Mayflower Meeting House with the theme of "Stairway to Heaven."

The junior class officers are: Jeff Stabenau, president; Karen McDonald, vice president; Anne Fitzpatrick, secretary; and Julie Faustyn, treasurer.

SENIORS

*. . .we may never pass
this way again. . .*

Senior Memories-- The Long Beginning Of Future Ideas

Seniors found the 1973-74 school year as one of excitement and anticipation. The anxiety of their upcoming graduation filled Senior minds with relief and sadness. They looked back on their four years at Northville High.

They remembered their first day as Freshmen; seeing old friends and meeting new ones; discovering a new school. They recalled their first dance; the first corsage; the swell of pride when they succeeded in an athletic event or other activity. Ordering class rings was very important to the class of '74 while they were Sophomores. And then, as Juniors, they found themselves in the middle of things as they left their younger years behind and looked forward to their Senior year.

It came more quickly than anyone expected. Preparations for graduation helped them to realize that the "big day" wasn't very far away. Announcements, caps, and gowns were ordered. College and scholarship tests were taken. Senior pictures were distributed to friends. And of course, there was Prom, where formal dresses and tuxedos seemed to change everything.

Graduation day will soon be here. Final good-byes will be said, and Seniors will take their last look at Northville High as high school students. The class of 1974 will now look forward to their future, and wonder if they may ever pass this way again.

Mr. Charles Apap, class sponsor inspires Seniors.

we're in a car, but cannot drive.
we were once there, but cannot return.
we are now here, but haven't arrived.
.....we may never pass this way again.....*
