CHILD FOR A DAY ...

I was a child
    who ran full of laughter.
I was a child
    who lived for today.
My eyes full of sunshine
My heart full of smiles
I was a child for a day!

We were the children,
who sang in the morning.
We were the children,
who laughed at the sun.
Who listen to those who speak with their wisdom
who are the ones
who we would say but . . .

WE'RE GETTING OLDER . . .

... As time goes by!

Senior Wills

I, JULIE ADAMS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Shelly Robinson, one dance in ecstasy with Ron Turner-joke! To coach Ten, Pom pon forever... To Julie Kilpatrick, a date with Scott Hayward- chance! To Dr. Aune, a new job. To Mr. Townsley, a student assistant that shows up at least once a week. Sorry Mr. T, but I always had out to lunch engagements. To Denise Nichols, a never forgotten friendship. To Scott Balko, I leave you this hole on the hill, have fun! To Trinky Platte, later on... To Northville High School, I leave my senior "care" attitude. To Paula Horst, keep S.A. Ging. To John Canarsa, I leave you (or have left you) that big ol' house in Edenderry-note; I said house, not home. Nice try John, but Hustons parties aren't what they use to be- only kidding. And finally to Hubbs, Oats, Patty and Christine Diana, many thanks for an excellent senior year!!!

I, SHARI ALLEN, being of semi-sound mind, leave the following to the following people: To Denise, I leave four bottles of Southern Comfort, Three guys (B.G. R.C. & T.L.), a blue mustang (you have to clean it), a hayloft, a piippen and a new suede coat. To George I leave a three wheeled milkerskate, paint for an orange Pinto, a speeding ticket, a guy with short hair (you have to keep him over 2 days), new windshield wipers to be given to someone else, a Kmart parking lot and an Arcade of your own, my revenge book on Pintos (orange and blue), RS,J,S,B,T,D, and most of all ED and all the heart failure you gave me because of them. To Uncle Blurt, I leave all the trouble you gave me (although you have enough to go around for everybody). To Seymour, I leave 7-11, a silver van, a silver Camaro, Peter Rabbit, ice water?, a hair dryer, a monicle for your nose, an 8 hour ride from Cedar Point, a guy with blonde hair, Matt Rollerama, a game of foos ball with Barry, a mouth that shuts when it should and a Cat hat, I know you'll wear it well, Uncle Blurt, Punk and Gitchy (don't be too niff on 'em, there's no excuse for you, please take care of Comfort wisely. To Billy goat I leave you one wild ride on a sandbuggy (I drive this time). To Muse, I leave as many lunches as you can put up with. C.H. what you get is on the roof. Good Luck! M.W. Take my credit card and wet socks. PLEASE P.S. To Gitchy, Punk Doozey and Billygoat, I leave all my love.

I, MICHELLE (shorty) ANUSBIGIAN, do hereby bequeath the following items to the following (lucky?) people: First to my teachers... To Ms. Senorita Serafa-Manshot, I leave a class of "15" (yes, 15 students for a Spanish 4 class- all will be brilliant as the class of '78. To Mr. Townsley, I leave my younger brother, he being a crazy Armenian like myself doesn't take to dumb American jokes (don't worry Mr. T, he doesn't like Turks either). To Mr. Reinhold, my favorite cross country coach, I leave a few things, first I leave capable person to hold your keys & lock your doors, secondly I leave you another manager that loves the team, the coach & the sport as much as I do, and lastly I leave you a successful season next year. To Brian, Jim, Tom D., Steve, Todd, Dan, Tom A., Harry, Myles, I leave you all times under 16:30, I know you can do it, I also leave another trip to State (Brian, this time get some sleep!) Good Luck to all of you, win the first meet for me. Oh, I forgot, I also leave you at least 3 people to cheer for you ('cause I won't be there & you need someone to take my place). To Gary, I leave an 11:00 pm romp in the snow (when it's brisky chilly), a girlfriend that doesn't fall on the I.C.E. and a few inches of my height. To Beth & Don, I leave all my love (you'll have to split it with the Cross Country team) and the most happiness in the world. To Carrie, I leave a book on "The Hows & Whys of Going on a Date", a pinch and wink from everyone that thinks you're cute (you're going to be awfully sore)... To Kelly, I leave one day when she acts rowdy and crazy as me, and a tall guy of your choosing. To Karen, I leave a lifetime of dances to be cut in on, and office to teach (if you know how) unlucky girls the ropes of getting HIM, also I leave you a tape recorder that says "I don't want to talk about it", and a smile from every person you meet. To Jan, I leave one 4 foot snow drift, one free lesson on how to push a car out of the snow, without going backwards down the street, a free gift from "ole blue eyes" at Sneakers & Cleats, one chico for every day of the week, a rust colored van (you get the driver) to cruise, (Goats Farm, here we come), a month in Granada (to do what you will- but don't lose your slip this time) and much luck & love in the future. To Bill, I leave a British accent (just kidding), a kangaroo to jump over here whenever it pleases, and an extra large pizza with everything but anchovies. To Laura S., I leave a perpetual smile & another "Fiddler". To Judy, a leaky bedroom & a month in Granada (maybe you and Jan can go together.) To Diane, I leave one of my not so good math tests to laugh at. To all the Quasies, I leave each of you a "Quasi Power" bumper sticker, and last but not least, to the class of '79 I leave a super senior year!

the class of '79 I leave a super senior year!

I, AMY ARMSTRONG, being of sound mind and fashionable (?) body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Lisa Pasiuk, a friendly welcome to NHS & all my fond memories for a great senior year. To Sharon Persha, a date at the bowling alley of her choice with my brother (older or younger?), my solemn promise that I will not change up at MSU, but most of all, my everlasting friendship. To Johnny Coram, sheer devotion, for I have never in my life met such a caring, friendly individual who brightens all the lives he touches. (AMEN!) Plus the title of Disco King of NHS! (not to mention spirit king, Burger king...etc.) To Dee T., I leave my closet full of clothes anytime she needs it, especially during parties. To Doug Marzonia, I leave a STARR to dream of whenever no one's around. To Chuck Hagan, I leave my level-headedness, for you won't survive without it. To Mary Liburn, I leave the message of a great philosopher, (me)- the ability to see yourself as others see you, and realize what a great person you are! To Kathy Carter, I leave my taste in clothes and memories of our Junior year. (especially homecoming!) To Margie Boland, a cheer for happiness, for I think you've found it- Gimme a L-U-J-G!! To Lynne Pauley, I leave an exasperatingly, fulfilling career as a creative writer, best of luck. To Greg Bach, a superb senior sentence and friendship. To Brenda Hargay, my room and all its seclusions, your own private mechanic to service your car (not to mention the ability to drive it care-free!), harmony in the home and the heart, no matter where you search for it, and a record of that Disco tune, "My Buddy" To Colleen, a video tape of your immaturity and first grade pranks, not to mention the ability to forget. To the faculty and students of NHS, a warning, for the last of the Armstrongs will show his smiling face, (usually means he's hiding something) on you next year. Be merciful, for he is the worst of all. To Dave Boor, the record, "At the top of the stairs." And last but not least, to the Junior Class of 1979, a larger vocabulary, and a better, constructive use for the word "CARE." Audiv.

I, GARY BALKO, being of sound mind and body hereby give the following articles to the following people: To Jan I leave a can of Raid in case a bug gets in any of your books, a farmyard and all the fun that goes with it, Spain and it's memories, a book on "How to succeed in bubble gum blowing contests," and a sad movie to cry through from the start to finish. To Michelle I leave a lifetime membership to the Fred Fischer Fan Club, a million thanks for the help in Spanish, an extra contact in case you get punched in the eye while walking down a strobe lit stair case, and a chance to get away from those long four hours at Orva's. To Bill I leave my infinite knowledge of the Australian Aborigeny (not much because I can't even spell it), and Charlie's Angels to speak with an Australian accent. To Karen I leave some new words to come out of her mouth besides, "leave me alone." To Carrie I leave a hot line to Dear Abby to use in good health. To Kelly I leave all my C's so she can see what they look like on a report card. To Senorita Serafa-Manshot I leave a pair of glasses to see what really goes on, and a lifetime supply of the famous Guilli's Guacamole. Finally to Michelle and Jan together a trip to Center City to let out your real personalities.

I, PAT BALKO, will Lynnie Herald a better class because you deserve better! Mr. Pederson, one last S.M.O.O.C.H.I Mr. Edwards (Mr. Ed.), another red lip stick mark on your lab coat, if I can have one more look at your body. Dr. Campbell, Thank you!! Scott Raymond Balko, a wild little hussie that will take you out and show you a good time! Just get out of the house! Brian Faustyn, a set of barbells so you won't look so whimp! To gang bang, a new word, because your favorite, F___k, is wearing a little thin!

I, DANELL BERGSTROM, being of fatigued mind and even more fatigued body, do hereby bequeath the following to my remaining friends and foes. To Mr. White I leave you the women of your dreams, may she be able to tolerate your "child play." To Brady Kramer all my points and my physics notes. To Judy I leave a lifetime supply of un-run nylons and a delectable can of worms. To Robert Charles Daniels I leave the extra pair of Chemistry books willed to me by his infamous brother last year (be careful what you do with them but have fun!) To Karen Bell I leave one comb, one pair of skin tight painters pants and a sickening goggle (you've still got one more year-POOR KID!). To Ma Dwyer I leave one more Speech I like ours, you'll get an early retirement! To the highest bidder I leave my old Humanities tests. To Matt Baker I leave my collection of rocks from the Riviera & another hotel room filled with people at 3:30 a.m. To Mr. Apap I leave my never used chalk board eraser and my tarnished E.R.A. pin. To Mike Luckett I leave my old beach towel to be used as a batman cape purposes. To Mark Yanoschick I leave A.J., my copy of Le Petit Prince, a pinch, and my wishes for good luck. To Andrea Cook I leave my sand goggles (for the extensive drought periods. Good Luck Cookie!) To John Canarsa I leave a free dry cleaning pass for a blue velvet suit. To my brother, Ed, I leave my hopes for 3 high school yrs. as happy as mine. And finally to Northville High School I simply leave.

I, SHERI E. BROWN, being of fairly sound mind and questionably sound body will the following: To Mrs. Dorian a filmstrip kit to flick the lights on and off with. To Mr. Meteyer a quiet swim manager. To Mr. Scharrar and my lab table a string that bums itself. To my mother a set of unfaded bulletin boards. To Mr. White a mustanger ad from K.L., T.W., D.B., and S.B. To Tim Wilson and Kurt Kratz a happy idiot. To Luigi Folino all the physics tests or labs he needs. To Jamie Pitak, a car of a different color and a small party with pizza. To Bob Krinsky a look at my FM converter and a car that will make it up the front hill, (you owe me Neil Diamond). To Carol McLaughlin a Novi student with the initials J.B. To Jim Carmichael, a white Buick, an accident on the way to Livonia Mall, and The Spy Who Loved Me. I will a National Honor Society meeting to Richard Bookwalter. To John Canarsa and Matt Baker a How do you do Rhu? Schmall sleeze, a Pomo Safari and 4 girls to hide in their room. To Steve Whitaker a distainful glare. To Robeeeeeent Daniels snow tires so he will always be able to get home, a teeter totter for me to flip him off, and my headband and long hair for the Blue Streak and a bony shoulder if he wants it (sniff). To Randy Tharp a senior will and a story about Missy. And finally to my sister the best of luck in her next three years (Stay away from Mr. White).

I, NEIL BRADLEY, being of sound mind and somewhat questionable body will the following: To Amy Fitzpatrick I will all the foreign guys she can handle, some frost and tip for the other side of her head, and some glue for her lockets. To Mike Hurley & Doug Castillo I will one eternal high, so that they have enough money to go to California. To Teresa- Tina Maria- Trina- Lynn- Dece Trece Walker I will a brand new pair of curable prom shoes, a small bony meat pile, wet looking nail polish, and a job at Andy's Meat Hut to carry on the family tradition. To Chris Friel I will someone to drive him and his date so he can park and be driven around at the same time. To Sue Pergum a schmral cummy date with Bronce Bob & Cowboy Jim, and if they don't show up let's not throw an egg at them in my house this time. To Julie Walker I will a Dolly Parton wig to match a couple of Dolly's assets she already has. An extra bed for all the runaways. To Chris Egand I will Mike with great eyes & his friend Mike, and Teresa told me everything. To Liz Smith I will a sleep with but do nothing partner. To Matt Stewart I will a new vest sweater & someone to walk home with. To John Canarsa I will another journal on Paris avic Danell B. To Angela Carson I will all the spaghetti she can eat and a window to lean on when she's done. And Last but not least, to Cathy Carter I will the continuing memory of Tim Minors love letter, and a rematch with Mungy.

I, FRANK BASTAMANTE, having mind and body unbecoming of a senior do hereby leave the following to the following: Jeff Weber one permanent date, so he won't have to pick out whichever he wants each weekend. To Mungie, one dozen x-small tanktops and a case of grease to put on them. To Boorstel, a new hellistic store (near home) and one free kegger. To Jim Carmicheal one pair of extra dark sunglasses for all those cloudy days. To my friend Bobby a pair of heavy duty gym shoes so he can run circles around me in Physical Conditioning. To Mark Kramer, the ability to drive the right way on 7 mile. To Buck, a six pack more than anyone else, and a better fake I.D. To Carol a phone that works, and to her clan, a hot topic to talk about. To Keith Assenmacher, one day without a buzz. To the "hearts club" one new deck of cards (preferably unmarked). To Jeff Jensen, a date with someone else. To Tom a date with someone.

I, JIM CARMICHEAL, being of sound mind and body, leave to Bob Daniels, Kathy, Beth, Sharon, and Sandy to take your troubles off of your N.H.S. girl troubles. To Jenny King, and Beth Tucker, and Mary Beth Bustamante one bottle of Johnson & Johnson's orange baby Aspirin. To Kisa Krinsky, I leave (so our continuing argument will come to an end.) Mrs. Woodard is to receive all my late Advanced Comp. papers (if I can find them.) To Mr. (Ap)?, I leave a complete set of Dolciani books and two custom math buttons. To Uncle Walt, I leave one ski lesson. Nat and Tracy are both to receive one box of rubber bands for out 4th ur wars. To Wendy Beaven I leave the ability to figure me out. To Sheri Brown I leave a distainful glare. To Annie Dayton, fond memories of a summer I'll never forget! To Bob, Dave, and Earl, I don't leave because good and true friends are hard to come by.

I DOUG CASTILLO, with sound mind and body, do hereby will to the most exciting teacher in the school, Mr. (pegi) Trombley, all the deceased bodies he can handle; and also, hopefully some replaceable hair. But don't forget loser, that "Bald is beautiful." To Mr. Johnson, I leave a 5th of whiskey and a pint of Vodka before every math test. To Neil Bradley, I leave a comb for every hour of the day. Also "Good luck" when you start campaigning for mock elections. To Chris Friel I will the following: A new pair of tassels to brighten up his shoes, a new pair of cats pajamas, and also the back seat of Neil's car. P.S. Your weak cutie. To Karen Hauff I will her a better excuse not to go to the dance with me. "Hey Doug, I'm really sorry but I have to go to church." Yah sure you do Karen. To Kevin Schugar I leave a new pair of white teeth to replace his old crooked yellow ones. To Lori Young I leave cancer of the mouth, and I also leave a bigger vaccum cleaner to enlarge your hickies. To "Two Beer" Mike Hurley, I leave a sex life which you have not yet experienced. Also, a couch to crash on in the middle of every party. To Mike Chio, I will you all the sympathy I have because I know for the next years you have to put up with all the rotten, lousy teachers I had. And finally Jane Tilson, to you I leave my love always.

I, ANDREA (ANDY) J. CONDER, being of another planet; do hereby will to the deprived underclassmen... Angela Carson, a COWgal hat, only if she wears it while not eating spaghetti. Carol Wallace, a new pack of gum. Paula Horst a birthday in March. To my cousin Julie Abraham one of my four lockers (take your pick). To Santa, alias: Melon Collie Baby, something he's always wanted, a new joke book, with or without the shock. Also to Mr. Townsley, that man who loves the Irish more than we could imagine, (your wife huh?) A 5 inch green yard stick reading IRISH, guaranteed not to break up to 3/17 hits. Last but not least, to the classes of 79 & 80 a fantasia homecoming a rowdie spirit week, and just an all round super year.

I, ANDREA COOK, being of Quasi mind and limpy body do hereby will to: my little brother Paul, a new car so he can take out girls without dying of embarrassment; a chemistry teacher that doesn't remember me and good luck in his next two years here (he'll need it). To Karen Roll all the good things she deserves. To Allyn Young something to do after Kurt graduates. To Kim "Groove on Abitz" a fantasia senior year. To Leslie Magdich a ride to school with someone besides "quasis." To Bob Daniels a riding lawnmower. To the future quasis (you know who you are) a prime time as seniors, may you always be true to the quasis. To Sue Mitchell (one of the three mouseketeers) a mustache, goatee, hip huggers (with matching silk shirts) and bill cream to slick back her hair. To Ma Dwyer, Mr. App, Mrs. Woodard, Mr. Kinde, Mr. Meteyer and Mr. Edwards, the appreciation they deserve from their students for the A I education they deliver, and my thanks.

I, LFSLEY COOPER, being of sound mind (I think) hereby will the following: To Lynda, two dozen grape suckers (told ya!), five lbs. of M & M's and an empty car. To Elaine, my great ability in tennis and a new toothbrush which you lost in the parking lot (remember!) To Sue I leave my courage by buy "Bud." To Sandy, some new weights and the chance to compete against Mr. Universe! To Mr. Redmond, one gigantic piece of mint candy to last the year and a day at the recording studio. To Fumble, your own toilet display in any department store you wish! To Lori, a muzzle to keep your mouth shut about the stories I tell. To a real bogart of a friend, I will my mouth and temper to acid to yours! To my brother Paul, I give my common sense to help him through high school. To the class of 79 and 80, good luck in the high school because you'll need it! And finally to the class of "78" I wish the best of luck to everyone in whatever path you choose.

I, JOHN ELTINGE, being of bewildered mind (verdadmente, La Vida es Sueno) and wimpy body, do hereby make the following bequests: to Diego y Felipe, a year's supply of No-Doz to make it through next year (take heart Diego, not all is a waste); to all the wonderful graffiti artists who have kept us all so well entertained, one message unmarred by misspellings and grammatical errors; to Brian, one more year of sawdust, broken tools and tetanus, and my esteemed title of Set Head; to Lisa, a year of happiness; to Sheryl, my thanks, a smile and a "hello". To Allyn, a never-ending world of imagination; to Diane, endless determination and enthusiasm, to next year's seniors, an expression of greater intelligence than this year's "Care", to Brett, optimism; to Mr. Townsley, limited edition deluxe copies of Six Crises and RN, personally autographed by the authors, to Mr. Wickens, a day without frustration, to the English Department, and especially to Ms. Woodard, a copy of my future magnum opus and scholarly paper, The Zen of Roller Derby, a la senorita, una clase sin problemas; to Uncle Kurt, a bulldozer and a new auditorium; and last, to Raymond Spear, one place, available for immediate occupancy, in the waiting line at MESC.

I, PATTY ERWIN, being of sound mind and body, leave to Cindy Pratt, an American Airlines 747 and a Donny Osmond Doll and a greenhouse to grow your own jungle in I leave to Nancy F. my sincere hope for your secret wish (you know what I mean). To Elaine Sarcevic and Joan Shempff your own spot on the Mustang, so you can have your very own, famous gossip column! Also to Elaine, a lifetime supply of confidence and a Yugoslavian picnic. To Eugene R. The memories of the times of your life at TG & Y, and N.H.S. To Kathy G. and Elaine S. a BLUE CAMERO WITH MAG WHEELS AND HEADERS and lifetime passes to McDonalds, Big Boys, Northville Charley's and Friendly's, along with two weeks of fasting. To Beth Getzen a reconciliation between you and dear old Eugene. To Beth Tucker a bachelors degree in Psychology. To Mr. Peterson, a kick in the face (because it's so kind) and last but not least to S. McKee, a mirror to discover the only thing I saw in you even tho it doesn't make any difference now, thanks for the memories. To N.H.S. — GOOD LUCK, this place needs it.

I, KAREN LEE FEDERSPELL, of absent mind and out of shape body, do hereby leave to Kathy Goodwin, one fast car, another home, and a handful of dates with J.C., you deserve it. To Elaine Sarciwch, I leave 10 less pounds, the will power to resist K. W., and a beautiful life for a beautiful person. To Beth Getzen, I leave Colorado, a successful career and the patience to put up with Eugene for another year. To Eugene I leave 10 more Dance A-Thons. Beth Tucker, I leave one pound of only the best, 10 more pounds and a size larger in pants so they fit. To Mr. Pederson, I leave a four year joke book and 10 more bats. And to my sister Nancy I leave an even better senior year, tardy-free and some smooth talk. And last of all I leave to Cindy Pratt one less Steve, her own airport, go get them a girl, and Rob. And to the rest of the school I leave a better looking principal and 20 more absences. Thank you.

I, AMY LOUISE FITZPATRICK, being of sound mind and body hereby will the following: To Liz Smith, a free pass to any one of the following schools: Farmington Harrison, Livonia Churchill, Plymouth Canton, to pick a boyfriend of your choice. (Note: you can wear your hair up if you wish.) To Von Von, I will a brand new deck of cards to play in Math class if ever you should have the urge to play Egyptian rat screw. (Even though I can still beat you at it.) To Nature Boy, I will a new Nature shirt from Alaska, this one with a better variety of animals on it. To T.S.M., I will my head with my hair in a bun for a time period of one hour to do whatever you like with it. To Woussy, I leave you a new baby pig to dissect without me so it will keep it's leg this time. To the Mustang, I will a juicy column to print all the latest gossip; so Northville can get the straight facts quick and easy since they love it so much. To Dece, I will you two more mentally healthy years at N.H.S. P.S. I took donations and you should be receiving your new pair of pants in the mail next week. Nice first impression of me seeing you in your underwear. To Lynn Herald, I will a space in my Mustang so I can bring you and Dece to a disco sometime. Don't worry — one of these days... To Northville High School I will Scott McMillin's voice and Chris Freil's humor to keep you guys on the radiators entertained.

I, CHRIS FREEL being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Scott McMillin, I will a good party in the park with the traditional "3", and the constant reminder that you must walk all three of us home. A six of Michelos to replace that ever-flowing Strohs. A spotlight on every dance floor for you. Free tickets to Kentucky Fried Movie. To Paula Horst, the change she will never go back and get at the park. Another worry-filled night without your car, a golf dictionary, it's "four" not "par". The ability to stop laughing after 10 minutes, at least. To Julie Adams, a Fleetwood Mac concert every summer, a pom-pom squad in college, you'd try out, wouldn't you? The frustration of a two hour wait to be picked up for a party, the joy of me listening to me complain about you-know-who, and the memories of all our good times. To Pat Balko, a new set of tapes (sorry, Elvis is not included.) To Julie Hubbard, a friend with no problems, another 18th birthday to celebrate, a good roommate at college, who will understand when I show up every week-end. To Lisa Oatey, a car that works. To Carol McLaughlin, a birthday every weekend that we can celebrate (I think I would die.) To Audrey Reingar, two more wonderful exciting years at N.H.S. I hope they are as good as mine were. Enjoy them while you can, the time goes too fast not to. To Nancy Lempala, a new pair of Wednesday pants, a fall job at the Cider Mill and a great Junior and Senior year.

We CHRIS FREEL and JULIE ADAMS, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath the following: To Sid Warren, we will you the common sense to knock off at least 25 years of your fantasy age. To Sue Gordon, we will you two hip pads so you don't bruise your hips when they "bang" against each side of the hall. To Jackie Sherman, we will you a renewed reputation, because by the time you're a senior you'll sure need it. To Roberta Petrow, a free pass to a hair implantation clinic. To Lisa Lefever, the ability to do at least one pom-pom routine right. To the sophomore guys, Hang in there boys, you've only got a few years to "grow" before the sophomore girls are truly satisfied.

I, DEREK GANS, being of absent mind and unabsent body will my only possession of a few C's and a failure notice to my brain brother (It can't hurt him any.) To the swim team, another great year and someone as smart as me to take my place. (Good luck next year.) To Coach Ron I leave my trusty book entitled "How to Swim in One Easy Stroke." I will to Snake Eyes a quiet library first and second hour. To Grames Cluh I leave a secretary that can come to meetings (not like me), and lastly to N.H.S. I will all my good goodniece and all the CARE in the world.

I, LORRAINE HOPPING, do bequeath the following treasures to the following fortunate few, To Peaches and Perry, next year's volleyball team and the best of luck with it. To Sue K&P, Lisa F., Lynn H., Renob and the rest of the tennis team — another year with Uta and enough spirit to DEMOLISH Harrison. To Suzy Chapstick and Pix, a thousand cases of GAL popcorn, 7,000 "spirit" buttons and some money for GAL. To Gramps, someone to bug you and keep you from doing your homework 6th hour. To Bunker, lotsa fun with Simpson and the prestige of being a Junior (now you can answer Ms. D's questions and do good on papers). To J.B., a comb and a dozen mirrors (that's what Mike told me to say.) To Barry, a lifetime of "Le Petit Prince". To Tony, someone to proofread your papers who is "not like me, (nice, friendly, ect.)". To Mr. R and future members of the Mustang, best of luck at Schoolcraft and a bake contest with more than one entry!

I, PAULA HORST, of partly sound mind and body do hereby will the following: To Scott McMillin, more sunny days in the park full of beer, squirtin' & a grinning, and par! To Chris Freel and Julie Adams the use of my car to spill a bag of pretzels and give me an ulcer! To Dawn Ketter, two pouched eggs and grapefruit for her no-fail diet. To Janet Eisle and Jayne Winemaster an endless supply of strawberries, daiquiris, and racquet ball. To Nancy Leaky a better job and a solution to all our problems. To my brother Doug I leave as many good times at N.H.S. as I had, and last, to Andrea Conder, the sweetest person in the world I will the memories of yesterday and the hope of tomorrow. Good Luck.

I, JULIE HUBBARD, will to Chris, Jeanice, Julie, Lisa and Pat love and friendship forever.

I, MIKE HURLEY, leave to John Horwath, Marc Hooth and Steve Loffler, some taste in music and the ability to not cut down what you haven't heard. To Johnson and Trombley I leave an ability to teach. To Mike Chio, so he can make it through the next two years, some patience, endurance and a pound. To Jim Wexton, I leave a date with the nun of his choice. To Jeff "early Kansas" Hodge, I leave a fake I.D. a drive-in movie (did you see that), a Rush concert and my astound B sssing ability. To Chris Freel I will a back seat (you're weak), a lighter made in France, 4th hour in the parking lot and a poster of Emerson to keep him company at college. To Neil Bradley, I leave my ability to be on time, to hold what you drink at parties on Friday nights at Saratoga. To Doug Castillo, I will a machine gun so he can blow away a certain art artist, a pound, so when I'm not there he'll still be able to escape reality, a few hundred nights in his driveway and the intelligence to distinguish a draft from a Miller. To Debbie Miley, I leave a senior picture so she'll hopefully remember me.

I, PATTI KELLY, being of an Insane mind but a pretty sound body do leave Scott Harrington all of my partyn' spirit. I leave Kathy Fauer my ability to stay out of trouble. To Sheryl Wissman my school spirit. And to the sophomores my ability to be short but can be tall at the same time. To the juniors all the fun I had my senior year.

I, SHANA Q. KISSEL do hereby leave to S.C. and A.C. one decent New Years Eve party to go to next year. To L.S. my ability to pass gym without going. To T.C. a book entitled "The Art of Eating Pizza" and Yano's records (share them with lckray Argertbay). To L.B. a car so she never has to walk home from school again. To S.C. my Flying, Airbume friend, one elbow attack and all the old Get Smart films (you too Tom). It's been great being friends with a celebrity?! so keep it up, promise? To Mr. T. (truly from T.C. and J.G.) the Pinhead of the Year award. (You're welcome Jenny) Hey T. won't you be upset when we can't cheer for you in the halls next year? No, I didn't think so! Thanks for GONZO. To L.W. the album "Little Ditties" by Ken Stanton—Oh that's beat. To J.G. a fire in the orchard, the orchard and memories of all the crazy things we've done in the last five years. I hope we're still best friends ten years from now. Have a great Senior year and all the fun that goes along with it. To J.D. one of the few that really know me, one telephone cord, a saucer of milk and the song "To Sir With Love" Thanks for everything I couldn't have done it without you. To all my Quasi sisters—may the Quas be with you always. To my little sister, sorry but you still are my little sister, all the fun and memories I have of N.H.S. Finally, to L.F.R. the last flush.

I, DIANE KLECKNER, leave to Chris Stephens my ignorant flag and the memory of those first days at the camp. To Sue Pacquette I leave experience so that one day she may be Mother Superior over the sophomores

I, JAN LEHL, being a slightly rowdy senior do hereby give the following terrific(!) funny(?) articles to my friends (my friends now, but, who knows after they read this?) To Michelle my quiet(?) friend, I give another chance to clean up her reputation, a book on "How to Remain Calm in a Blizzard", a telephone receiver that is cushioned, my great ability for restraining from buying things (?), a bag from Sneakers & Cleats to take on a flight, and the special article from Beth. A box of Kleenex because our great expectations at Little Ceasars didn't happen. A container of visine because of straining from looking around. And finally a hat and scarf which I owe you, and lots of happiness in the future. To Gary, I leave some white (hard to see) tennis balls, any icy parking lot so he can help "Little Miss Ice", a mirror so that he can do his favorite thing, two hamsters to observe, a new notebook because your old ones filled with notes and the memory of an exciting ride to Taco Bell. To Karen, I leave my red cheeks, a haircut, courage to make important phone calls, aspirin for her "convenient" headaches and a book on "How to Watch M & B dancing without turning green." Lastly, I want you to have all the happiness that you want. To Judy, another visit to Alhambra "por la noche" and as much fun the second time as the first, and una aspiradora that she can turn "on" and "off" depending on how she feels. To Carrie a night at Little Ceasars that might have been, also a stick to beat off all the guys. To Kelly (who is so polite and quiet) all my bad manners and my big mouth. To Senorita Serafa, I leave as much ale as she can take (but please don't pour any on the floor), one more time singing "Nos ha pillado", a class just as perfect as ours was and finally a spanish joke book that has "good" jokes. To Beth and Don, what can I give you, except my special wish for all the happiness in the world. To Yvonne, more stares like she got in her white dress. To Barb, another spanish waiter. To Diane, a trip to N. Carolina to have some "Welch's" Grape Drink touch your lips and a dance at a Spanish Disco with Raphael. To Cindy, your favorite macramé, and a Kleenex for everytime you think of Spain. To Lisa, who is the one person besides me the importance of Oklahoma, a ticket to the Detroit Institute of Arts, in appreciation of an earlier ticket. To Bill, a lifetime supply of Pepsi, a loveable Kuola "Bear", and terrific memories of being at "Little Ceasars" with two rowdy girls. To Beth (my little(?) sister) I leave all my fun times and hope she has just as many and also she has terrific friends like I have.

I, MARY BETH L. BURN, of somewhat sound mind and lets just forget the body part, do hereby bequeath the following verse to my fellow Seniors: Time it was, and what a time it was (ya it was), it was a time of Innocence (Shimpee's on a Friday afternoon) a time of Confidences (huh?). I long ago it must be long ago, I have your photographs (Carter's Halloween party... Sam!) deep in my memory... They all have left me (I'm upset right?). To Shimpee, Swayne and all of my other great friends I give to you my eternal love and friendship forever! Good luck to '79, hope ya graduate!

I, AMY K. LINCOLN, being of boogied to bits body and befuddled brains, do hereby will the following items and thoughts to my friends. To my sister Beth, I leave a pass for three free Advanced Door Closing lessons. To Beth S., I will you one dance in the Minch Room with the tables still up so everyone can see how many tables you really can dent. Zoi, it was nice of you to keep the children at play sign on the stairs. I leave Sherry a chance to meet someone with sweaters just as nice as Dennis'. Bill, Greg, Brian, Scott, Conrad and Todd, I'd like to thank you guys for all the little sayings you've come up with, for example, Aah-shmah; Folk yeas; Excellent dope, man; and Hey dude! Very creative! To Bob, I leave you a girl who collects foreign change and doesn't say no! no! Tracy, I suppose our golf shoes are worn out so I leave you a gift certificate for a new pair of beaver skin Roots golf shoes. I will, to Jeff, a new dance partner for next year's M.D. marathon. Sorry I have to miss it. Uncle Walt, do you think you'll ever get another creative writing class?

I, KARIN LOTARSKI, of sound mind and body, bequeath unto the following: Jenny, your trip to Tahiti (with me!) Trinky, a bandana and a life without Mr. Joe, a New Year's Eve kiss. Brady, a free dance ticket. My favorite Mr. Townsley, a Polish ham. German III, Mrs. Prestel. The sophomore girls a new wiggle dance, comb and pair of tennis. Jane and Jeanice, luck, love and our friendship forever.

I, JANE MACH, being of sound mind and body, will to Tammy Eis and Trinky Platte all the trials and tribulations... I just hope you straighten up, Tammy. To Laurie Johnson I leave my pointy white shoes. To Joe Schimpf I leave only the GOOD memories of me, and for Bev Kohl, Mary Drexley, and Kathy Marrone, I leave N.H.S. Go to HIM, girls.

I, MARIE MAGLIA, being of sound mind and body do hereby give the following to my beloveds. To Lisa Russette I leave a certain shy Armenian to do what she will, also only good things for her in her future endeavors. To Sue M. I leave a sun lamp so she won't have to lay in 30° weather again. To T.A. I leave a certain skinny Ball player so she can stop singing "give me the Campbell life". To C.C. I leave a good pair of tennis shoes, he'll need some with all the running away he does from the girls at N.H.S. Of course to Lisa S. I leave "Starsky". don't give up, Indiana guys are push-overs. To the Humanities teachers I wish a lot of luck, they'll need it, the class of '79 will be theirs next. To a certain Business teacher I have had over the year, and have had the pleasure of hitting in the face with a pie, "Happy lumber days". Get the working capital high and the termites out. Practice what you've preached and no cheating on your income tax. To the Rosie Club, I leave a few more members, you need 'em. Don't be another elite bunch of snobs. To Philippe, Miguel, Edward-ito, Ricardo, I leave my thanks for keeping Espanol II alive. To S.P. I leave a Xerox machine, be careful! To the Girls '79' tennis team I leave the will to beat Harrison. Last but not least, in any way, my little cousin Kim Kurzowa (female jock), I hope you find the same amount of fun if not more than I had at N.H.S. and keep G.A.L. out of debt.

I, CARRIE MISSEL being of sound mind and body, will the following to fairly good friends: Amy: Her second kiss and I wish you many more. Jenny: A pleasant and rewarding experience at Northville High. Kelly: The best time at M.U. and always a beautiful smile on your face. And hard to get tickets to UND and MU football games! Karen: All the Robert Redford movies and a case of Snikers to munch on. Stay off the diet skinny! Michelle: Some Short and Sassy shampoo, for her beautiful hair. Jan: Another trip to Spain to see Jose' and stationary. A whip to keep guys away! you need rest! Beth: All the best years with Don! Laura: A ton of clay and black glaze. A good time at Purdue. Lisa: Lifetime round tickets to Chicago. Lots of friends!

Senior Will SHERRY NEAL: To Ricky and Twinkle I leave all my tables in the "no smoking" section of Little Ceasars. I also leave all the cheap tips I got from you kids on Friday nights. May only the best come to you short people. To Scott McMillan I leave a pitcher of Stroh's or whatever you drink to get a cheap buzz. Have a nice 18th birthday, and throw away that fake I.D., you're cuter than the picture. To Debbie Curl I leave a pack of Correcto Type and all the secretarial skills you learned and the ones I never did. We had some good times in that class, watching stomachs grow. May you always find time to write while I'm having a good time in CA. To Nancy I leave a pack of these terrible things you smoke and a glass of water from Caesars. Also a senior picture of myself and one big party to say goodbye to our senior year. To Cathy Gass I leave the memory of Toronto and Skelly. Good Luck in whatever you do, but just don't do too much. To Zikkie, I leave my badminton racket and the "Italian" (after I get him). Keep the faith Zikkie and you'll never lose.

I, PAT NORRIS, alias "The Ranger", being of army surplus mind and body, do hereby bequeath my most cherished possessions to the upcoming class of '81. I leave my flashlight complete with owners manual, my TI-30 calculator with matching holster and at last my most cherished possessions, my Ranger Code Book, my life-size poster of General Patton and also my volumes of war manuals.

I, LISA A. OATEY, being of sound mind and body, do will to the following: To Sue Pegrum I give one large case of Barbie doll books to read at boring parties. To Sally Palowski I guarantee many more fun evening experiences. I leave to Suny Hunnman my ability to cook at "The Gul". To Jeff Norton I give a new pair of orange tennis shoes every fall. To my summer baseball team I give a more complete team so we can beat Dave's Tim. To Lisa and Kathy Marrone I leave all my fun times in high school. Lisa, I was going to find you the key to Webster's room but he doesn't go to State any more. To Eddie I will a student assistant that will show up and not be such a smart-alec. Last of all I want to thank all my friends and teachers for being so kind and understanding to me this year. P.S. To sophomores and juniors have a blast!

We, OATS, PATTY and HUBS, being of weird minds and bodies do will to the following: To the Senior (Care) guys, except Roor, Coram, Hackman and McMillan, we will all our spirit because you guys are so boring, especially you Marzonie! To the sophomore girls, new stylish tennis shoes to wear with their dress pants. (Pretty groovy girls.) To Mr. Ed our thanks for the reproductive knowledge you gave us. What a BOD! We'll miss it. To Dr. Aune thanks for the moving lectures you gave us three, most likely we would have been J.D.'s without them. To Scotty we give lots of love and kisses. T.N.H.S. we leave the great designs on the water tower. Yes Eddie, it was us. (It never looked better.) To the juniors and sophomores we must say good luck. We hope you guys have as many good times as we did in High School.

We, the QUASI SISTERS of Northville High School, do hereby will the Quasi Queenom to the following privileged individuals: Liz Smith, Jenny Glour, Chris Stephens, Leslie Magdich, Jane Tilson and Linda Brownell. You must carry on the Quasi traditions, like Christmas buddies, and all the other "groovy" things we do. Don't forget to choose a new group of quasmic sisters at the end of your senior year. Have as much fun your great senior year as we did.

I, LEIF ROMBERG, being of rotted mind and not much body, do hereby leave to Mark Stec, the same bottle of Essence-de-Fish that Kurt left me, along with many happy years on Guesmey. To Sally, my sister-in-law, I leave some good rumors and all the boys she can catch. To Laura Wilson I leave a bottle of beer and fresh tape (for your mouth) and a new plastic bag for your head (last years is worn out). Laura Eisle, I leave a few EXCITING parties to corrupt you a little. To Brian Postma I leave as many sessions with the psychiatrist as it will take to cure you of Physics. And to Cliff Griggs I leave the BOOZER'S award. To Kathy Whalen I leave all the sophomores she can handle.

I, NANCY SCHIMPFF (Shimpee Senior), leave a house to party in to all underclassmen. To my "little" brother, Joey, I will some saint to take care of you next year and a season of being the star basketball player. To my sister Joanie I leave a turtle-neck and my I.D. To my best friend, Ter Swayne I leave shared secrets and a lifetime supply of cherry vodka. To Mary Lilburn I leave fond memories of all our talks and me laughing at parties. I will you the brightest future anyone could possibly have. To my favorite person, Jimmy Weston, I leave my deepest gratitude for being my friend. Remember all our talks, parties, getting me home when I sprained my ankle, and rides in my car and yours! Some day you'll overcome that shyness! To Dave Boor I leave lovely memories of staying up all hours, dancing at your parties, a bigger closet, and happiness always. To Jeff Weber I leave a wider staircase so I won't have to step on you, a free dancing lesson from Shimpee, and a glass of water for lunch and a Big Chef for dinner at Clark. To Janet Shaw and Vida Mikalonis I leave someone to party with on New Year's Eve (and someone else's foot to nin over!) Hope you find some other nut that dances outside your car! To Eugene Rabossa I leave one free night to keep my promise (I'm still waiting!) Jane Mach-all I can leave you is some strawberries, an unmarked neck and my brother (you're a sweet sister-in-law). To Bruce Ely I leave the fun times of going to basketball games but never quite making it there! To Mark Vanlengen-good times at the drive-in with Kathy's "show a little passion" for Steve! To Andy Conder I leave a new snow buddy to shag with and sticky tape for your tape deck. Rob Ade - Hi ho! Mistletoe! To Kirk VanGiesen I leave one free lawn job (on somebody else's yard!) and the ability to NOT get caught. Peggy Watt, "Can I borrow your legs?" To Amy Fitz, Julie Walk, Connie, Kathy, and Peggy I will one night, no charge, in the Hilton with OSU players (room 409 at 12:00) I leave Paula Horst my warmest thanks in helping Andy make my 18th birthday unforgettable. I'll never stand in corners again - or look at another Santa! To Julie, Chris and Lisa Oats, and Denise I leave "Back in the USSR". To Scott McMillin and Neal Bradley I leave an even louder horn for the next time you try to sneak me in. To John Coram I leave a night to get lost in Detroit and stuck in the Stein Haus parking lot. Also, one senior prom meeting (fight-free). To Suzy Heinzman I leave my thanks for calming my hysterics and having the ability to be me for a night and call the police station. To Debbie Bauer a ticket to a movie where you'll stay awake; to Kelly Jamieson - a new bathroom buddy; to Brent Blanchard - one free date to a Sadie Hawkins dance, to Jeanice, Andy, Julie, Patty and Barb, another Zoo at Farrell's for Barb Rice's birthday. To Cindy Robert I leave the switchboard at work, Shermie and Deb, may all your dreams come true. To the entire school I leave good luck and happiness.

I, KATHY SETTLES, being of stray mind and even stranger body, do bequeath the following: To Mr. Shamar I leave 100 cases of unbreakable plastic rulers and one mercifully empty desk. (See what one slip of the knife can do?) To Mr. Appap, I leave the book God is Great by I. Nohar. To Ms. Dorian Sandbothe, I leave a slide projector that works. To Shari W. I leave a year's supply of Toni Super Wave—enough for all her friends. To Jim M. I leave the latest version of the Veg-O-Matic Ear. It slices, dices, chops and shreds! To Richard B. I leave crustaceans of snow. To Deborah B. I leave the novel I wrote entitled, Spend Your Prom At Home, under the pen name of N.O. Choice. Behind me, I leave the "star wars" at Northville High. The going gets tough in this continually running popularity contest. Finally, I leave.

I, LORRI SHEZKO, will to my sister, Kathy, all my tests, notes and brains and an orange Corvette. Lynda, a "human bean" and Bean power forever. Smith a whole day when I call her Linda and a cure for wimp wels. Lesley, a free hair cut and a trip to Calif. to see S&H Mr. Appap, a book on ERA. Ms. Lilley, a successful cooked dinner. Ms. Kelly, an electric heater. I leave Pat and Lisa my collection of Beach Boys tapes. Mr. K., a chauffeurs license. To Sparks, a smile. To Van, a successful senior year at N.H.S. and lots of luck in everything after high school. Also a bag of apples to eat!

at lunch. Good luck to all Juniors.

I, LINDA SMITH, will the following: To my dear sweet brother Eddie, I leave you a better senior year, plus all my brains and my notes to get you through. To my friends, Lynda Shezko, I leave you my I.D., Greg, Novi High School and many other dance-a-thons. Lori Shezko, a lesson on how to sit still and a map on how to get home from the Quo Vadis. Lesley Cooper, a date with Mr. Chatham, lessons at a charm school, memories of my temper and many other trips to Calif. Kelly Vamer, forty-eight hours alone with the guys swim team and a great senior year. Good Luck. Cathy Shezko, a book on how to use and talk on a C.B. Ms. Lilley, may you never have another person like me in your future classes. Bob Krinsky, I will you a year to catch up with my age. May your 19th birthday be as good as mine, Good Luck. And to all my teachers may the rest of your teaching be successful.

I, TROY SMITH, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Burlly Bill Bosanilo, a gift certificate to Nautilus Weight Lifting Spa and a locker that can't be kicked in. To Angela, a six pack for every weekend that she can't find a buyer. To Mark Nazsrad, a coat that no body else has. To Pat Nomis, Yellow Stone National Park. To Ann F., a phone call every night from the person of her choice. And last of all, I leave to Mark S., his driver's license before he turns seventeen. And to the class of '79, best wishes for a great Senior Year.

I, NATALIE SNYDER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby, bequeath to Uncle Walt, pierced, mashed, rolled, smoked and definitely embarrassed hottentots. To Dave and Matt I leave all the good times I had and an order to take care of and hassle Uncle Walt, to Sherry a day of quiet and to Bob Daniels a hanger with amazing powers to cut through plexiglass. To Mr. (AP)? I leave the greatest equation of them all,  $\sin^2 x + \cos^2 x = 1$ . To Chris C. a bigger desk with more room under it (sophomores!) and to Amy I leave "22,23,24,25." To Tracy, the best time of her life with someone other than "big-foot", to a certain person (she knows who she is) a water bed, to Jim I leave a perverted Hawaiian so he can find out for himself, to Earl the ability to spell on command, and to Bob a big "thanks" for all our talks and the hope that they'll continue for a long time.

I, AURA SPARLING, being of definite body and unsure mind do bequeath the following: To Bob Krinsky a "s Agriculture a Growing Field" t-shirt. To Liz Smith, my purse. To Chris Stephens a recording of "Liz, are you sleeping" and also all the Lithuanian power in the world. To Mr. Apap, my family tree. To Mrs. Kwyer, a date to the next play so we can film it, this time I'll bring the lifesavers. To Yano, my sloppy joe mix recipe, so someday we'll really be able to "bomb em" To Alisa K., backrow seats at the Fisher. To Andy Conder, a dictionary (your 1st book with more than one word in it.) To conclude this mess I'd like to thank the quasi's, the teachers, counselors... (I could go on forever) for a fantastic memory of N.H.S. Good Luck to ALL and I'll see you 'round cookies!

I, CAROLE SPIKER, being of half crazed mind and dancing body, leave the following people, not much, but something. To Macchelli Pierson, I leave a brand new Chevy pick up to cruise around in, in her senior year, one purse to keep her make up, money, cigarettes, etc. in so she'll keep it all out of mine. One up-to-date charge card for gas, Lafayette, the base guitar player, any disathèque of her choice to dance in and the wonderful memory of dancing with Piern. Take care Shelly! To all the underclassmen, my ability to yell very loud at pep assemblies and games. Keep up that good old N'ville spirit! A lot of luck in running the school store. Also, the senior's side of the bleachers to the juniors. To those very self-conscious sophomores, plenty of hours to curl your hair and do your make-up. Come on girls, this isn't Hollywood, and turn off that strut! To my "sweetheart" Mark, many more dance contests and good partners. Also, the best of luck in the future. To anyone who wants it, my "Sweet Baby Al" to Cruise around with the AM stereo full blast on Honey radio. And last of all to my sister, Marcia, the last Spiker, all my good times in High School, my locker and my teachers. Be good Marc!

I, DAVE STEC, of sound mind and body will: to Ann Ferry a life-size poster of Hooker and the ability to dance fast. To Harry, the thought of being wrong once or twice without getting frustrated. To Fred Flinstone, a new laugh besides Be He He Ha Ha. To Jim C. new muscle shirts, the ones he has are too much for his masculine physique. To Vicky, a long life with Lucas and boots that fit. To Bill B. a universal that he can't lift off the ground and the thought of being the new Charles Atlas. To Angela C., 100,000 shares of the Strohs brewery. To Pat N. replacement eye lids. Last of all to Tim D. a car that can't be blown sideways by the wind.

I, DAN THOMAS, being of sound mind and fit body, will the following: To Jim Montgomery, a wig to hide his hair and about 50 lbs. to last him through his senior year. To Joe Barons, I will a brand new silver knob with a years supply of nuts. To Jim Carson, one more senior year and a chance to make all-league. To Mr. "H.J." Townsley, one case of Ouzo to get through future economic classes with more Doyles, Marzonies and Freels to come.

I, KIM VANKEPEN, of sound mind and body leave Sherri Eden, Missy, Parelli, Moose, Monkey, Lob, Lauri Jackson, all the leftover fun for their senior year. To Mr. Saunders and Mrs. Gorshak, I leave my hope that they have another fun-filled year of Co-op banquets and school store advancement along with a fun, co-operating senior class to deal with. I leave Mr. Wickens and Mr. Satarino all the credit problems of the next graduating class. To Dr. Aune I leave him alone because he's one of the most uncooperative men I've ever known. To my business partner, Peggy Graham, I leave you all my beloved business courses along with every electric typewriter you can handle, good luck to you! Mrs. Snod—Grass I hope in your 1st hour consumer math class you have at least ¼ sophomores, ¼ juniors and the other ½ seniors so you have a class when senior meetings come up. To the graduating class of 1979, good luck and have one hell of a good senior year! You'll miss it!

I, AMY VARGO, OF _____ mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following to my successors: To Mr. Kinde (or as J.E. would say, "Uncle Kurt") I leave memories of cruel notes with flowers, no musical, no attendance at D.C. meetings, but many great memories from Dracula (I don't think playing up on my shortness is funny), Royal Gambol (when the lights came up while I was still setting up props), Fiddler (even though you blamed me for leaving the bridal banners on the floor), and Charley's Aunt (why'd you have to say "No necking backstage?") and whatever comes of the Revue, I wish you and Mrs. K. and Jay all the luck in the world and thanks for so much. To Ms. Brown I leave one half of an imaginary tatted tablecloth (C.B. is responsible for the other half). To Mrs. Woodard I leave another intellectual, extremely literate student assistant to do all that mind boggling work like assembling dittoed hand-outs, alphabetizing and checking off homework, etc. To Mr. Williams I leave one bottle of Vitamin E to give to future horn players with chapped lips. To Mr. Meteyer I leave my doctor's bill for my stiff neck from reading articles in the "Conservation Corner." To Bob Daniels I leave a new set of radio headphones so he can listen to good rock while sitting in on Jazz I. To Lisa Willoughby I leave Drama Club, just as it is and another year of Forensics gool luck. To Ms. Dwyer I leave another year with Brady Kramer, so she'll never have it "Quiet for a Level." To Marci DeRupa and Nancy Joslin and Beth Groves I leave lots of plays and musicals to work on-have fun. To Bev Thomas, who doesn't go to N.H.S. anymore but bought a yearbook anyway, I leave three more chances to make a play (I'm jealous) Francis (I'm jealous again) and The Art of Kissing, and many fantastic Idioglossias from the GROUP in junior high to your new gang. Have fun, good luck in Canton. To Phyllis Thomas (see above) I leave no-bake cookies, a chauffeur's license for driving a station wagon full of couples to an "inspiration point" after the Winter Escapade, and all those lunch hours from my 8th grade to my Senior year. Sei gut, und studiert sehr ernstlich in deine neue Gymnasium. Viel Gluck und Liebe.

I, JULIE WALKER, do hereby will the following: To Chris Friel, another chance at Spirit King care! and a Ronald McDonald compass, and a xerox machine for your Humanities papers. To Neil Bradley, your own personalized bucket to use whenever you feel the need to, an appointment at Golden Comb for the morning after, a tube of K2R for the spots, finally Scott McMillin for your roommate at the big U. To Kathy Carter, I will the following: a place to stay whenever you leave home. A Second Chance because you need one, a wig to cover up your license, Kris, and also a red Pinto for when you pass the test- watch out for those red lights, they'll get you every time! strange how it runs in the family. To Mike Hurley, a dream date with Mrs. Collins, a key to Chio's house to eat whenever you want, and a new pair of work shoes. P.S. Dave helped me write yours. To Connie, pain pills because it hurts so much, bouge time, if you know what I mean. To Gordie Davis, free disco lessons at the dance studio of your choice. To Britt Evans & Deana Ervin, a double date with Dave Chio & Mark VanIngen. To Kris Eglund, a blanket and a pillow for those long nights with Dave, bouge time! your own private parking lot, schmalt hit & run. To Peggy, your long awaited trip up north. To Amy, a one way ticket to Persia. To Mungie, my own personal number so you won't have to go through the red tape. A new fender grill for the one I helped wreck, P.S. but it was your fault, finally, an extra 50 points for your license record so you can have a Second Chancel!

I, TRACY WEBB, being of fairly sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following. To Uncle Walt, one dozen hottentots and I wonder if he'll ever have such a creative creative writing class again. To Mr. (Ap)? I leave the good form so he can have the good life. To Chris C. I leave the knowledge that sophomoretitis isn't fatal. You'll grow out of it-maybe, and a dark brown metallic finish Camero. To Bob D. I leave some hair spray and to David S. I leave someone big and strong to make him hang up the phone (mind your big sister!) To Earl I leave a lancet since he seems to like them so well. To Krys bo I leave a bottle of French dressing for any salad she wants-guess which! To Bod I leave my vote whenever he runs for president and lots of baby frogs. To Jim I leave the knowledge that ticklish people are great! To Amy I leave her own door swinger for if she gets bored, and to Nat I leave a fake mou stache to paste on any guy she might find who doesn't have one and her MOOOOO!!! To the "lunch bunch" I leave my thanks for helping make this year a really good one and finally, to the underclassmen I leave good ol' NHS. It's really not so bad - take good care of it!

I, JEFF WEBER, of sound mind and body hereby will: Frank (Side Burns) Bustamante one limp noodle and two dozen track two Razors-Franks get A! To David Scott I will one free tax deductible date with Audrey Riegner, have fun you two. To Julie Starcevic I leave Mike, her one and only love. To poor old fat Dave Boor I give my ability to date girls. To Blater I leave one roll of medical tape to use on his mouth. To Angie Carson I leave all my empty kegs so she can pretend to have a party. Also a six of Strohs. To the remaining members of Northville High I will Chris Spigarelli's tremendous ability to understand people and their situations without showing any anger (Thanks Chris) Last and least I will my little brother Ken another older brother to fix the Thunderbird and support him through his junior and senior years.

I, LINDA WINANS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Judy Zimmerman-my Little Ditties Album by Ken Stanton and two bucks for entertaining us for the evening. To Shana Kissel-a piece of string to tie up her tailpipe and the common sense to not walk in front of moving bicycles. To Laura Spirling a batch of gingerbread containing six cups of flour and you can keep the white dress with black polka dots! To Cindy Bull-my Saturday Night Fever album complete with pelvic gyrations and a road map in case you suddenly end up in Toledo, Ohio. To Diane Kleckner a new set of baggage to take up to State. To Cher Rume a Playgirl magazine and a beipan to store it in. To Lisa Faye Ray a long corridor to practice up for the wheelbarrow race. To Teresa Norris my elevator shoes and one full round of Happy Birthday, without being told to shut up in a very unfriendly way. To Dave Fischer the handle to my stickshift. To Brian Odem-a new pair of shoelaces and all my knowledge of kung foo. To Krystn VanRenterghen a bus pass, a test card, two meal tickets and an ADS or bus that comes on time. To Liz Smith- I leave nothing but a hound dog. To my Quasi sisters-all the wonderful memories of good times we've shared.

I, EARL WUESTNECK III (Duke) being of sound mind(?) and body leave to: Bob Daniels, one Track Two razor and a bushel of peaches to practice on. To Lisa Krinsky I leave you a Lance. To Mr. Sharrar I leave 10 questions in physics and to show you the snowmobile trail on Mt. Drive. To Ellen Broderick, "Let's Be Seniors". To Dave Bartula (F.B.F.) I leave you a dented hood of a Mustang II. To Bob, Jim and Dave I leave fond memories, experience and much hope we will be close friends forever!!! To Mr. (Ap)? I leave fond memories of the Sadie Hawkins Dance and friendship. For Lori Rebard I will the memories of a great friend. To Sheryl Wisman (hello!) I leave the thanks of being a close and thoughtful friend through my High School years. For Andrea Cook I leave the opportunity to give me whiplash in the future and being a great friend.

I, JUDY Q. ZIMMERMAN, being of sound mind and body (except for an acute case of senioritis) do hereby will the following: To Diane Morsey Dechape, another trip to Spain and my ballet shoes, to Senorita Serafa, on Carlos Quinto and your favorite Macarra Pedro, to Leg and the N.H.S. bank my fish face, to Dave Fisher the words To "Ground Round", to Paul Cook, enough money to attend the Junior Prom in your accustomed style. To L.F.R. anything you want and your flagman, to L.W. may you "float" next N.Y.'s Eve and turn many duck eggs, to Bullie, as much happiness as you had in Granada, to Shana-na, a much soppier year, the worst is over babe: to my Snowball Queen, Jenny G., a cool radiator for your pom pom outfit, to Sun King, Larry Smith the girl of your choice to wear my Sun Queen crown, to Mrs. K., a batch of Chinese cookies. To the cute Kell, my looks, to all my Quasmic sisters I will anything they want from life and lastly to my little (?) brother Johnny I will as much fun and as many great friends as I have had in High School.
