Northville Finalizes Beautification

The beautification of Main Street was completed this year with the addition of an old-fashioned Town Square Clock. The clock was just one of many projects including brick sidewalks, old benches, lamp posts, and the renovation of some of the older buildings in Northville. The town has been uniquely fashioned as in the way it might have looked in the 1800's.

Dr. Bell's New Plan

The new superintendent of schools, Dr. George Bell, proposed a new plan for Northville High School this year. Included in the renovation of the high school is a change in the present grade structure and future facility use for the Institution Special Education Program. Dr. Bell said, "Instead of closing schools, we should be opening schools to part of the community which presently isn't being serviced by them."

Bell plans to change the present concept of K-6, 7-9, 10-12 to K-5, 6-8, 9-12, but not until the schools have been equipped to handle the needs of the other students, which would not be for another two or three years.

A new hobby, which is becoming more prominent at the high school and in all Northville, is video games. With the addition of two video arcades, the Bee Hive and the Electric Light Room, the students now have a place to go when there are no activities on "The Hill." With such video games as Pac-Man, Donkey Kong, and Tron, the arcades have become a place where all can go to relax and have a good time.

Homecoming

The weather was perfect for a football game. The game began at 7:30 p.m. and Northville was on top of the Churchill Chargers, scoring the only touchdown in the first half, but by the fourth quarter the Chargers picked up two points to make the score 7-10. With two minutes left to play, the Mustangs scrambled for the touchdown that would win it for them but, were unsuccessful. The football players played a good game and gave it their all. The players were supported by parents, families, friends, and fellow students.

Enthusiasm Dominates Homecoming Week

Homecoming week's many activities included Pajama Day, Beach Day, Hobo Day, Punk Day and Orange and Black Day. The lunch activities were stuffed animals, orange bobbing, pop chugging, impersonations, girl's biggest muscle, goldfish eating, a car pile up, marshmallow stuffing, best class song and an orange passing contest.

The Pep Assembly showed each class trying to express more spirit than the other. It consisted of routines from the pom pon girls and pom pon boys, the crowning of the homecoming court, and many cheers.

Eggbies

Each semester Adult Living students participate in a pseudo-parenting exercise. Students receive a raw egg which they must return safely at the end of the week. Dice are rolled to determine the sex of the eggby, whether the student is a single parent or has a partner to share responsibilities, and whether they have a single eggby or twins.

"Parents" are responsible for eggbies at all times, and expected to find competent egg-sitters if they are unable to care for them. Daily journals are written about the activities and many comparisons are made with real parenting experiences.

Sports is a major part of student life at NHS. Whether it be fall, winter, or spring, something is going on. And in the summer, athletes are busy training

Although all students do not participate in a sport, they play a major role by going to games and cheering our teams on.

Participants in athletics here at NHS work hard to break records and win honors as well as work as a team and practice good sportsmanship.

Varsity Football

Nineteen eighty-two was a year of frustration and inconsistency for the Varsity Football team. Some of the high points were the opening 28-0 victory over Thurston and the thrilling 27-26 double overtime victory over Plymouth-Canton.

Northville placed one player, Andy Dimitroff, on the All-League team and John Quinn, Matt Meyer, Kevin Hite, and Ron Winters on the All-Division team. Andy Dimitroff and Matt Meyer were also on the All-Area team. Andy Dimitroff finished the season by rushing for 943 yards, but a late season injury prevented him from surpassing the 1000 yard mark. With the return of 16 starters, 1983 looks like a good competitive year.

Junior Varsity Football

The Junior Varsity Football team finished the year with a 4-4-1 record. This was good enough for a second place finish in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association. The high points of the season were the thrilling come from behind, 22-19 opening victory over Thurston and the season ending 35-0 victory over Novi.

The offensive leaders were quarterback Dave Denhof and runningbacks Rick Van Buren and Doug Hartman. The defense was led by Freshmen Phil Pendelton, Tim Miller and Mark Deal.

The experience gained this year should help the players contribute to the 1983 Varsity Mustangs.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

The Mustang Varsity took 2nd place in the Western Division of the tough Western Lakes Conference with an 8-5 league mark. Led by co-captains Paul Havala and Dave Bach, the Mustang Varsity made a strong bid for 1st place with 4 consecutive league wins at the end of the season, but fell short by one game of tying Churchill's league mark of 9-4. With many Juniors gaining valuable experience, the team is looking forward to the 1983-84 season.

Boys' J.V. Basketball

The biggest asset this year's team had was its defense. No opponent had scored over fifty points against us. This is something the team can be proud of because defense is the hardest part of the game. Another accomplishment this year's team had is winning the J.V. tournament at Milan. They won the championship game (by a score of) 53-20. Scott Gray was the MVP of the tournament. Scott also made the all tournament team. Their record was 11-5. John Storm and Greg Wendel were the leading rebounders. John Storm was also the leading point getter with 175 pts.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

With only one returning starter and a number of inexperienced players, the varsity basketball team devoted the season to improving basics and teamwork. Although the tough competition of the WLAA prevented the team from compiling an impressive record, the girls improved steadily and played their best in the season's final games. MVP Tracey Wilkinson carried much of the scoring load and a solid group of juniors and sophomores proved to be good prospects for the future. Tricia Campell and Kelly Parker were also award winners for their improvement. With continued hard work during the off-season, 1982 will have provided the foundation for a fine basketball program.

Wrestling

The wrestling season was not very successful. The team of many inexperienced wrestlers tried very hard to win the meets, but only managed to pull off one victory in their dual meets.

All was not bad, as Northville ended up with divisional champs. They are as follows: Bryan Burgett, the heavyweight; Erwin Morfe at 105 lbs. and Dino Candela at 167 lbs. Also, Ernie Bock had the most wins of the team with seventeen.

Boys' Swimming

The Swim Team can be considered a young team, however, for the most part they are experienced. There were six returning lettermen, four of them seniors. There are also four juniors on the team. Comprising the rest of the team are a number of sophomores and freshmen. The Swim Team had a good season in the new league and are hoping for many more.

Powder-Puff Football

The girl's Powder-Puff Football game is held one night a year. The girls practice many weeks before this night. This game is their chance to show everyone how football is played.

The night is constructed of two games. In the first game, the sophomore girls play the junior girls. The victors play the seniors in the second game.

This year the Juniors were the champs. They beat the seniors with a touchdown pass to Kim Terwin.

Gymnastics

The Women gymnastics team was one of Northville High's most successful teams this year. They took first place in the Western Five division and were always in the running to be leaders in conference meets.

Cathy Heitart became the first Mustang ever to qualify for every event at the MHSAA Women's Gymnastics meet. The team, with a record of 9 wins and 2 losses, helped to brighten the winter season for Northville athletics. Debby Heck, coach of the team for the past two years, resigned with a total record of 16 wins and 5 losses.

Volleyball

Northville High's girl's volleyball team, the Mustang Spikers, ended with a somewhat disappointing 6 wins and 11 losses. The team and coach expected a better season, but many of the team's losses were very close games in which the final points decided the game.

Steve McDonald's team is looking for a promising season next year. The better portion of the starting lineup was a seven member senior class including Tracey Wilkinson, Leslie Kucher, Jenny Gans, Judy Morgan, Christina Sjoberg, Kris Petit, and Connie Fogel.

Girls' Tennis

All of the girls came out on top this year during the tennis season. Gail Englemeyer and Holly Hubbard did exceptionally well in the single matches. Jackie Nichols and Denise Colovas did well in doubles. The girls went to one League meet and to the Regionals. Coach Ute Filkin was pleased with the season's outcome of ten wins and only four losses.

Boys' Golf

The 1982 Mustang Golf Team finished the season with an overall dual meet record of 7 wins and 6 losses. In the newly formed Western-Lakes League their record was 5 and 4.

Tournament play saw this year's squad finish 12 out of 36 teams in the Mid-west Invitational, 6th out of 10 teams in the league meet, and 8th out of 20 teams in the regional.

The most valuable player on this year's team was junior Bob Pegrum. Bob had a nine hole 40.6 average for the season. The most improved player was senior Gary Metz.

Cross Country

The Northville boys fielded a young team that showed steady improvement over the season. Senior leadership was provided by Dave Nafie and Jim Willoughby. This season offered an opportunity for underclassmen to begin to mold a team for the future, as the Reserves finished strong with a second place at the Conference Meet.

It was only the second year for the girls' team, but they demonstrated their promise in a big way. Steady progress over the season made senior Kim Assenmacher, junior Kelly Wool, and freshman Wendy Nuechterlein All Region picks.

Boys' Soccer

The Soccer team began this season with the acquisition of two new coaches, Dr. Swagne and Dr. Gans, to replace Mr. Meteyer. A young team, the Mustangs relied on discipline and hustle, along with excellent senior leadership to turn a rebuilding season into a surprisingly successful one. They started the season by placing second in the Country Day Tournament and later won the Flint Carmen Tournament, beating the first-ranked team in the State, Troy Athens. The Mustangs look forward to continued success next year.

Spring Sports 1982

Under the guidance of Coach Mary Minor, NHS's Women's Softball squad provided excellent performances during the year, the highlight in the game between Northville and Plymouth Canton.

It was a difficult year for Coach Bob Prom and his thinclads. The relays were his only spark as more girls were needed to provide overall team strength.

Distance races were the force of the NHS Men's Track team. With Clark Couyocmjian and Scott Dayton leading the way, the Mustangs ran to a 4th place finish.

Coach Richard Norton, playing a very young and inexperienced tennis team, finished second in the Western Six. With many players ready, next year's team promises to be a good one.

The Mustangs fielded a young baseball squad and produced a .500 season. Next year promises to be a great season for the NHS.

Nine players will return with a full year's experience.

Under the coaching of Ron Meteyer, the Women's soccer team experienced their best year ever. They were a well balanced and extremely talented team. Their season record was 12-3.

Academics are the center of school life here at NHS and we are quite proud of ours. NHS offers classes in many different areas, including English, Foreign languages, Math, Science, Home Economics, Fine Arts, Business Industrial Arts and Physical Education. This wide range of classes, combined with hard-working teachers, prepares students well for the future.

Board of Education and Central Administration

The School Board's special project this year is the beginning phases of its long-range plans for building usage and for changes in grade structure and curriculum. The high school receives special attention. First is an in-depth energy audit and improvements to make the building more efficient. Next is an architectural study in preparation for renovation of the high school. Teachers are preparing recommendations for up-dating the building so that better facilities will be available for classes and students. Staff, students, parents and citizens in Northville all will have a part in planning to make our high school more up-to-date, attractive, efficient and a better place in which to learn.

This year's Board of Education consists of a variety of members. President Douglas Whitaker is the Deputy Director of the Wayne-Oakland Library Federation. Vice President Karen Wilkinson is a housewife and President-Elect of the Michigan Association of School Boards. Secretary Christopher Johnson is a practicing attorney, specializing in cities and townships. Treasurer Jean Hanson is a housewife and former teacher. The trustees are: Glenna Davis, a housewife; David Llewellyn, an engineer at Ford Motor Co.; and Gerald Munro, the Director of personnel at Schoolcraft College.

Bell Acts on Quality Improvements

George Bell is a new addition to Northville's school system this year.

Mr. Bell's job as superintendent has been backed by 30 years of experience in education. He began as a music teacher, then he became a principal, and in 1980 he took over as Van Dyke's superintendent.

Since Mr. Bell's acceptance of Northville's offer, he has instituted several changes, among which are: a new hall monitor system, renovating the high school, updating courses, reconstructing the grade levels, and raising school moral.

He likes people, particularly students, and is frequently seen in the classes, at athletic events, and at special music and dramatic performances.

Administration

New this year at NHS is the hall monitoring system. Hall monitors make sure our halls remain peaceful and direct visitors to the main office. In the office, the secretaries handle phone calls, attendance, xerox requests and assist Dr. Aune, Dr. Campbell and Mr. Redmond in running the school with as few problems as possible.

Mrs. Hall

Mrs. Oliver

Mrs. Juday

Mrs. Kissel

Assistant Principal

Dr. Campbell was a counselor in the inner city of Detroit for seven years. Prior to that, she taught at Walled Lake Central, coaching debate, and teaching English. She has worked at the University of Detroit with the Special Projects Department and at Wayne State University, teaching a doctoral seminar.

She is currently on the Executive Board of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals, Vice-President of Wayne State University Alumni Association, and is on the planning committee for an organization of Women's Administrators in Wayne County. She has four degrees from Wayne State University.

The best thing that has happened to her this year is getting a computer in her office.

Service People

The cafeteria ladies have welcomed Rita Frank to their staff this year. They are trying to get a variety of soups and sandwiches in the lunch program. The new blue uniforms that the ladies wear look great. The salad bar in our cafeteria is unique, because it offers more than lettuce and salad dressing. Dr. Aune is proud of the program and often invites guests to have lunch with him.

Aspiring Model

Debbie Tuley has been a substitute custodian in the Northville school district for a year and has been working here at N.H.S. for one year. She is now working afternoons instead of days. Debbie likes to bowl, arrange dried flowers, and would someday like to become a model. She cleans the D section of the school.

Counseling and Special Ed.

The counselors are a backbone for the students. They listen to their problems and are always there to help them. The counselors become increasingly important to the Seniors who need help moving onto college or into the real world.

The Special Ed Department is overlooked by most of the students but for some it is very important. For these few, the school would be nearly impossible without the Special Ed. teachers, making it a very important part of our school.

Antique Collector

Mrs. Olson, the senior class counselor, "loves her students, dogs, and cats . . . and life." Besides counseling, she enjoys collecting things, mainly antiques, antique jewelry, furniture and copper utensils. She also collects clocks and music boxes. Mrs. Olson has 4 sons, the youngest of whom is in law school. She also loves to read and listens to jazz and classical music.

Mrs. Olson is involved in quite a few clubs, including the Soroptomist Club, Delta Kappa Gamma and Michigan Association for Women Deans, Administrators and Counselors, of which she is a past president.

Active Teacher

Ms. Conzelman is involved with the Women's Caucus this year. One of their major goals is to support the girls in school and the girls' athletic events. She is also working on the Northville Athletic Committee representing girls' sports. This is her seventh year teaching in Northville, including the two years she taught at Cooke Junior High. Ms. Conzelman also teaches a College Reading course at Henry Ford Community College in Dearborn. She enjoys aerobic dancing, reading, and cross country skiing with her husband, Mr. Conzelman, who teaches Auto Shop at N.H.S.

Math

Students at NHS are offered a variety of courses in the Math department. They have a choice of Trigonometry, Geometry, Algebra, Functions, Calculus and Consumer Math. This year Mr. Schumacher is the department's new chairman.

Mr. Dunwoodie

Mr. Johnson

Mr. Osborn

Hockey Enthusiast

Mrs. Arnold has been teaching math at N.H.S. for three years. She has also taught in Royal Oak and West Virginia. Mrs. Arnold enjoys all sports and spends a lot of time with her family. She is a spectator at her son's hockey games and is very enthusiastic about him playing. She likes to cross-stitch, needle point and listens to all kinds of music. She is also one of the few teachers at N.H.S. who likes rock'n'roll.

Computer Software

Ms. Starkey has been teaching at N.H.S. for three years. She has worked in chemical labs, hospitals and has taught in other school districts in Michigan. She has also attended several colleges in Michigan and has degrees from Rensselaer in New York and the College of St. Teresa in Minnesota.

Her pet project this year is designing computer software for chemistry instruction. Ms. Starkey also enjoys skiing, wildlife, painting, sewing, reading, cooking (especially desserts), taking care of her St. Bernard "Boots," and traveling. Last year she spent the Christmas holidays touring Poland and visiting friends in Czechoslovakia. She often takes her bicycle along on travels.

3. Ernie Bock gets his share of women in science class.

Science

The science classes give us a better understanding of life and the things around us. We learn about other animals and about ourselves. The teachers take the time to make sure we learn what will become quite useful for us in later life.

Science is a fascinating and important subject inside and outside of school.

Mr. Trombley

Mr. Meteyer

Mr. Sharrar

Fourteen Year Veteran

Ms. Walker has been teaching at the high school for 14 years. She enjoys reading, movies, cross-country skiing, sports, bicycling and politics. She also enjoys visits to her cottage up North with her husband, Mr. Edwards. They also travel to the East Coast and especially enjoy Cape Cod. This year Ms. Walker is involved with the Women's Caucus in which one of their goals is to support girls in school and in athletic programs.

2. Robyn Ridge looks interested in something as Leanne Norton reads a letter.
3. The Sociology class takes time to socialize for a few minutes.
4. Lisa Ziavaras and Jennifer Gass take time out from government to have their picture taken.

Social Studies

Social Studies teaches us what every red-blooded American should know. In addition to history, we learn how the government and the economy work, and we also learn about ourselves. The social studies has a great variety of classes from which to choose. We are fortunate to have the kind of social studies department that we do.

Home Economics

What's new in Home Economics? The Co-ed foods program is concentrating on nutrition for health. An emphasis is placed on the study and preparation of foods that are good for you as well as good to eat. The results of some of these projects are periodically made available to students and staff.

Parenting students plan and operate a preschool for three and four year olds during second semester. The aim of the program is to provide preschoolers and students alike with positive parenting experiences.

Clothing students put pattern and fabric together with personal touches in order to create clothing and crafts.

Ms. Tibble

Fine Arts

The Fine Arts Department offers courses including design, drawing and painting, ceramics, art metals, and band, allowing students to develop their creative talents. In addition, NHS has created a vocal music program taught by new teacher Mrs. Pryce during sixth hour and after school. The Fine Arts supplement academic courses, completing the total educational experience at NHS.

Choir Leader

Mrs. Pryce has been teaching in Northville schools for 6 years. This is her first year at the high school. She teaches men's chorus and women's choir.

Mrs. Pryce enjoys playing the piano, reading and traveling. She traveled to Europe, she studied music in Hungary and camped in the Alps.

1. Scott Werdell and Dave Doré check out their music.
2. The clothing class cracks a smile for the yearbook.
3. Tom Zielke, Mark Demrose, Mary Stillson and Vince Ventura aren't sure if they should sing, smile or hide!

Business

The Business Department consists of Marketing, taught by Mr. Saunders; Data Processing and Office Practicum, taught by Mrs. Gorshak; Typing, taught by Ms. Cotter; and Accounting, taught by Mr. Emerson. This year, we have two new Accounting courses; Accounting III and IV, using computers. Marketing has also set up the Hill top Shoppe, where students gain experience by running the school store.

Merchandizing Expert

Mr. Saunders has been working with his students on making the Hill-top Shoppe a great success. He has been at Northville High School for 16 years and works in retail stores part time. Mr. Saunders enjoys golfing in his spare time, during his busy life.

Ms. Gorshak

Mr. Emerson

1. Omer Anisoglu and Tim Keiser finish browsing at the Hill-Top Shoppe.
2. Student takes a break in Data Processing.
3. A student programs a new Apple computer.

Industrial Arts

The Industrial Arts include: Drafting, Electronics, Graphics, Welding, and Co-op, in which students divide their time between school and a part-time job with pay. Mr. Schwartz, who taught Auto Mechanics last year, now shares his time as a teacher consultant with the Special Education Department. New in the shop this year, is Mr. Donovan, an aid.

This year's underclassmen lived it up, showing great school spirit in preparing for their future.

Their successful magazine sale is helping them prepare for senior year.

The sophomores adjusted well to their first year at NHS, electing class officers and participating in Homecoming week. They raised money with a Christmas bulb sale and Christmas dance to establish resources for future years at Northville High School.

Leading Scorer

Greg Abraham has been playing hockey for eight years now. He has played on teams from Livonia and Farmington, and is currently on a Plymouth team.

Greg's team was recently welcomed to Sweden for a ten day stay to vie for the Måbro Cuj title. Greg, in turn, will be hosting some Swedish hockey players this year for a Plymouth sponsored tournament.

Last year, Greg's team won the Michigan State Championship and played teams from all over Michigan and Canada. They played approximately eighty games over the season.

Greg is looking forward to another good season of hockey this year. Good Luck, Greg!

NHS's "Cool" Farmer

Since Marty Cool, a sophomore, moved to Northville a year ago, he has learned a great deal about beef farming. Marty's family manages a beef farm that covers about 2,000 acres and has about 1,200 head of beef cattle. Among the types of cattle that they raise are Hereford, Black Angus, and Holston.

Marty's responsibilities include running most of the machinery and feeding and cleaning the cattle. During the harvesting season in the summer he often has to begin working at 6 a.m. and finishes around 3 p.m. While most of the machinery is automated, it involves a lot of hard work. Every year Marty and his family go to Lansing for M.S.U.'s Farmer's Week, where they learn new techniques and see the latest machinery.

Soccer Sensation

Kathy Korowin has been playing soccer for seven years on both the recreational and Bonanza teams. This past summer Kathy went to Indiana as a member of the Michigan State soccer team. She hopes to play on NHS's team and continue soccer through college.

This year, Kathy has been one of the few Sophomores on the Varsity Basketball team. She plans to play during her Junior and Senior years too.

During the winter months, Kathy enjoys cross-country and downhill skiing. She enjoys waterskiing too. Last summer she biked to Niagara Falls and back with her church's youth group. The summer before that she biked to Higgin's Lake and the Silver Lake Sand Dunes with the same group.

Kathy plans on attending a four-year college and although she is not certain which school or career to enter, she is considering the field of Sports Medicine or something closely related.

Student Scubadiver

For two years now Doug May has been scuba diving, whenever he gets the chance. He says that his dad and brother were the persuasive forces behind his decision to start diving.

Doug first dove at Lake Huron, but he says his favorite diving spot is in Mexico because of all the unusual marine life.

Doug had planned to attend the Air Force Academy, but after diving he is leaning more toward oceanography.

Track & Field Star

This past summer, Cindy Panowicz was selected to compete in Hershey's National Track & Field Championship in Charleston, West Virginia. She received an all expense paid trip and a chance to run the 400-meter dash with others from across the United States. Although the training was hard, she says she had a lot of fun and feels that it was a good experience.

Video Game Enthusiast

Steve Chamberlain, a junior at N.H.S., has an interesting hobby. Like more and more people these days, he enjoys playing video games. Steve claims he spends more time than the average person playing games, which helps him in his computer class at school.

Steve likes playing a variety of games rather than concentrating on one or two. He feels this enables him to be more versatile when he applies his interest to other things. Steve also enjoys reading, music, and spending time with his friends.

Jeff Finds Soccer a Kick

Jeff Metz has been playing soccer since he was eight years old. He started in a Cincinnati league and then transferred to recreation teams in Northville, when he moved here at the age of ten. He went on to the Bonanza Express Soccer League Arsenal team when he was fourteen and helped the team take three consecutive state championships, two midwest regional championships, and well over a dozen tournament championships.

Jeff has played varsity goalie for the two years he has been at Northville and is hoping to play again his senior year.

Some of Jeff's other interests are diving and playing the drums.

The Seniors really came out and showed their school spirit this year. After two years as underclassmen, they really displayed a lot of life as Seniors. This year's senior class is one of the best ever and everyone involved is very proud and full of praise. The Seniors have really tried to make this year, the last for them, the best ever at NHS.

Kim Assenmacher is a very interesting person who enjoys people and working for the school. She is involved in many groups such as Fellowship of Christain Atveleats, Pep Club, Secretary of the Senior Class, and Secretary of Honors Society She is involved in Cross Country and Track. On top of all of this she manages to keep her grades at an "A" average. After high school she would like to go to college to study Business Management and Administration. While in college she would like to study in Europe for a year.

Todd Lincoln likes to spend his summers biking. In 1981, he biked 1200 miles to the Wisconsin Dells, and last summer, he biked 1228 miles through mountains in ninety-five degree heat to the World's Fair in Knoxville, Tennessee. He trains hard to prepare for these summer trips, riding twice a week twenty-five to fifty miles and fifty to a hundred miles on Saturdays. This summer, Todd plans to bike out east and up into Canada.

In Fond Memory of Edward Patrick Bergstrom

Though Ed was with us but a short time, he left us fond memories which we will never forget. Ed strove for perfection in his many school activities, including Jazz Band, Boys' State, Drama Club and the National Honor Society. His greatest attribute, however, was his ability to make us smile. For this Ed will live in our hearts forever.

In The News . . .

The year nineteen eighty-two was a year of economic despair and war throughout the world. The Middle East saw the continuation of the two year war between Iran and Iraq, the third year of occupation of Afghanistan by Soviet forces and the obliteration of Beirut and invasion of Lebanon by Israeli "peace forces." Another hardship of the year was the world-wide oil glut. Nations that were previously accustomed to the seemingly endless flow of money from oil profits were faced with budget deficits and increased inflation rates. Saudi Arabia's leader of seven years, King Khalid, died and left the country to his younger brother, Prince Fahd.

In Western Europe, there was a growing sentiment of anti-Americanism and opposition to the deployment of U.S. missiles on European ground. President Reagan proposed to increase the number of missiles to compensate for the ever-growing nuclear arsenal of the Soviet Union. Sweden's coastline was once again violated by a submarine that was most probably of Soviet origin. Despite an extensive search conducted with sonar, submarine nets, air patrols, and even depth charges, the submarine managed to escape.

Eastern Europe saw the end of martial law in Poland, but only after the "emergency powers" of the military dictatorship were included in a new constitution. After nearly two decades of ironhand control over the world's largest superpower, Leonid Ilyich Brezhnev, age 75, died of heart disease. During Brezhnev's long reign, the standard of living for the Soviet people nearly tripled. However, at the same time, he was responsible for crushing the revolt in Czechoslovakia in 1968 and invading the country of Afghanistan. Also during this time, the war arsenal of the Soviet Union grew at such a rate that their nuclear, naval, air and armed forces either matched or exceeded those of the U.S.

Declining European power was tested in the South Atlantic when Argentina invaded the Falkland Islands, a small protectorate of the once great British Empire. After the sinking of several British ships, the downing of 25% of Argentina's air force and almost one month of fighting on land, the British recaptured the islands and several thousand Argentine troops. Repercussions in Argentina resulted in a change in the military dictatorship and triple digit inflation. Closer to home, Mexico faced possible bankruptcy and with the election of President de la Madrid, began to restructure the financial system of the government. Domestically, the year nineteen eighty-two was one of economic hardship for many. Despite President Reagan's advice of "stay the course," unemployment passed 10% and in Michigan soared to 17%. In other harder hit parts of the country unemployment was at 30% and higher. G.N.P. levels and factory output were at their lowest since the Great Depression.

Regardless of the economy, American ingenuity proved to be as strong as ever with fantastic developments in medicine and technology. The world's first man-made heart was successfully transplanted and promises to save thousands of lives in the future. A combination of computers and medicine resulted in a dramatic breakthrough that enabled a paralyzed person to walk via computer implants in the patient's brain. In the sciences, Princeton University achieved creating nuclear fusion. Different than the presently used nuclear fission, nuclear fusion obtains its power from deuterium, a form of hydrogen that is plentiful in the seas. Another advantage is that nuclear fusion results in short-lived radioactive debris that can be easily disposed of.

Classroom learning is only a part of the complete educational experience offered at NHS. In addition to sports, a wide assortment of clubs and organizations are available to satisfy the many interests of NHS students. These clubs, along with promoting school spirit, help develop academic skills, creating well-rounded students.

This year's Student Congress was involved in many school and community-oriented activities. Pep Club

Along with selling concessions during the football and basketball seasons, the Pep Club also sponsored a fun filled Homecoming week.

The week started off with Pajama Day, then everyone went to the beach on Beach Day. After Beach Day everyone bummed out on Hobo Day and then went to another extreme on Punk Day. Friday all the school spirit came out in everyone on Orange and Black Day.

Co-op and School Store

Cooperative Occupational Training is a joint endeavor between the school, students, parents and employers within the community to train young people in skilled and semi-skilled occupations.

Students who have made an occupational choice and are taking course work related to a particular occupation receive on-the-job training from participating employers. In this program the employer acts as the teacher and the place of business serves as the classroom.

na Selman, David Tadzryzinski, Kathryn Lockman, Katrina Powell, Mrs. MacDonald.

German Club

The German Club, the original foreign language club at NHS, had a successful year. Proving one of the most active clubs in the high school, they sold Gummi Bears, as a fund raiser, went to the Old German restaurant for dinner, had an international dinner with French Club. The Club's biggest promotion is their summer trip to Europe.

French Club

The French Club, established just this year, promotes both unity and activity amongst students enrolled in the French classes. Sponsored by Mrs. Hopkins, the club has used fund-raisers to collect money for an international dinner (along with the German Club) and a trip to Montreal. Even though the club had a late start, it will definitely remain a permanent part of Northville High School for years to come.

FRENCH CLUB; Front: Sue Peters, Jenny Merrifield, Chrissy Kreutzberg, Mary Beth Landrum, Melissa Ferry. Middle: Randy Chisnell, Steve Kosler, Anne

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders this year have been busy with competitions. The Varsity cheerleaders, attending MSU Sports Camp this past summer, took a first in squad competition and received many spirit awards. Jill Anger took first in individual competition. The Varsity will be competing at state competition in February. The J.V. also did very well, by taking third place at Albion College.

Pom-Pon

This year has been very successful for the 1982-83 pom-pom squad. During the summer, they held various fundraisers to help pay for camp. At the camp session at Albion College, the squad was awarded first place in all categories. All through the season, much time and effort are devoted to bringing entertainment to the halftime crowds.

Marching Band and Flag Corps

This year the Marching Band, led by drum major Deb Salisbury, performed at five home football games, culminating the season with an excellent Senior Show, designed by the six seniors in the band. The Flag Corp added color and dance to such tunes as "Centerfold," "Physical," and "Boy From New York City." The Boston Red Sox danced to "We Got the Beat" when the band had the special privilege of performing one of their half-time shows at Tiger Stadium for the Kiwanis Handicapped Benefit.

Choir

This has been a building year for the Choir with its new director, Mary Kay Pryce. Two new groups have been formed; Men's Chorus and Women's Choir which meet twice a week after school. The Choir opened the school year by singing in the NHS talent show and for the Board of Education in October.

The choir attended a Detroit Symphony Orchestra concert, and concluded 1982 with singing at Twelve Oaks Mall during the Christmas season.

NHS CHOIR; Front Row: Erci Stern, Kim Norman, Kirsten Blake, Amberley Morrison, Carrie Lis, Richelle Harrington, Belinda Cureton. Middle row: Mark Demrose, Fred Bauer, Tom Zielke, Larry Baltz, Michele Gates. Back row: Mrs. Pryce, Frank Sugar, Mary Stilson, Shawna Beech, Amy Arquette, Shiela Miller, Sandra Hunsinger, Laura Santos, Paula Folino, Linda Howe.

2. Carrie Lis, Belinda Cureton, Amy Arquette and Kim Norman give it their all.

N.H.S. Bands

The Band department at NHS consists of Wind Ensemble and Jazz Ensemble. Annually the bands perform concerts in and around the community and state. The Wind and Jazz Ensembles both participated again at MSBOA Festivals this year. They also planned a trip to a music festival in Washington D.C. in the spring.

Takeshi Wada is from Yokohama, Japan. Yokohama is a large city with a population of about 3 million people. Northville High School is different and easier than his Japanese school, because with the exception of English, students can't choose their own subjects, and all of the students take the same classes. And only teachers move from class to class.

Students go to school by train, bicycle or walk. Takeshi rides his bike. He plays alto saxophone and in the United States he is offered many opportunities. He is taking Jazz Ensemble which is ideal for him, because he wants to become a musician. He feels that he has to make new music for the next generation, so he is learning jazz music, improvisation, composition, arrangement and so on.

His other hobbies are drawing pictures, enjoying the arts and reading. He also likes to build model airplanes and watch old movies.

Christina Sjoberg's family lives in Lund, which is in the southern part of Sweden. Lund is an old university town of about 60,000 people.

In Sweden, Christina would have been a Senior at the gymnasium, similar to our high school. School is also harder in Sweden. Students have different classes each day with the same students in each class. Christina likes the variety in Northville.

Christina finds transportation different in the United States, and finds it hard to depend on cars since she is not allowed to drive in her homeland. In Sweden everyone rides their bikes.

Christina likes sports and traveling. She has joined a few sports this year and hopes to see a lot more of the United States.

Anastasia is from the Yugoslavian city of Searionski Brod. This, like many new cities in Central Europe, is large and much like American cities. But according to Anastasia, schools (or gymnasiums in Yugoslavia) are much easier here. She has also noticed the lack of respect American students have for their teachers. "In Yugoslavia," she said, "students treat their teachers as superiors."

She also recognized more people have cars in America. "it is as if driving is an obsession with students" (at NHS).

Some of the other differences she encountered were make-up, jewelry, and clothing.

Anastasia also said she was disappointed by the lack of knowledge of the outside world students have.

In a whole, Anastasia said she has enjoyed her stay, and dreads the day when she has to say good-bye.

Fabio Nielson came to NHS this year as an exchange student from Brazil. He decided to come to America because of its prestige as being a prosperous, fun place to live, and adjusted well to our different culture. He made many new friends, and also joined the soccer team, where he excelled. He says that he has had a great year and will always remember his experiences and friends in America. Always on the move, Fabio plans to spend this summer traveling Europe.

Drama

This year's Drama Club has been busy producing the talent show and the play "The Music Man." They sponsored both and along with acting in the play, some members ushered.

The Drama Club spent a day at Michigan State University for Drama Day. They also saw the play, "The Scrooge," and did singing valentines on Valentine's Day. Next year the Drama Club is planning to go to Toronto and attend plays, operas, and ballets, along with visiting world famous restaurants.

Northville has changed for the better during the past few years with new roads, buildings, and monuments. As always, Northville gives visitors a quiet atmosphere with many pleasant sights. The community supports NHS in many ways from attending sports games to sponsoring various school organizations.

1. The pleasing result of the renovation of Main Street.
2. Charity Albright tries one of the many benches now lining Main Street.
3. Mac Kinnons Restaurant adds fine dining and elegance to Northville.
